MANY MEN TO BE DROPPED FROM STREET DEPARTMENT PAYROLL

Supt. Doherty Finds Employment of Certain Men is Illegal—Treasurer's Office Busy Paying Off Men Whose Names Appear on $23,500 Payroll

Representatives of the city treasurer's office began this morning to pay off the $23,500 temporary street department payroll on the record-breaking $23,500 payroll submitted for work performed last week. The work of paying-off will consume several hours.

As an outcome of the conference held yesterday between James B. O'Neil, civil service labor representative and department heads at city hall, during which many phases of hiring labor by the city under civil service regulations were discussed, City Treasurer Fred H. Tourche, who is the city official permitted to pay persons illegally employed are paid for services rendered, did not wish to take the responsibility of paying the huge amount of the payroll without receiving the personal sanction of Commissioner Payson Dana. He was in communication with this official by telephone this morning and was told to pay the amount in full.

Under the present arrangement it devolves upon the treasurer to ascertain whether payrolls contain names of men who have been illegally employed in the past and their pay held up, so as to strike their names from any subsequent payrolls received but in the present case with more than 500 names submitted, the work involved would represent many hours of research and the treasurer wished to obviate it if possible. With the sanction of the state commissioner, however, the roll was authorized paid in full.

In the matter of illegal employment, Supt. Doherty gave orders today that 50-odd men now employed in his department, and in addition many other temporary men, will sever connections with the street department tomorrow upon, for it has been found their employment is illegal.

KLAN SEEKS FOOTHOLD AT FALL RIVER

FALL RIVER, Jan. 19.—That the Knights of the Invisible Empire, members of the KKK Klan, are attempting to gain foothold in this city by organization of a klavern, was revealed by the police today. It is understood agents of the Klan working here, have secured the services of five or six residents to further their cause who have been chosen as representative officers. The chief of police is withholding from publication all names and the details of progress he possesses, pending further investigation.

TO PROBE M'NARY'S BANK CONNECTIONS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Thorough inquiry into the banking connections of James G. McNary of Las Vegas, N. M., nominated by President Harding to be controller of the currency, was decided upon today by the Senate subcommittee, which appointed a subcommittee to go into the case in detail.

TO CONTEST WILL OF MGR. O'BRIEN

Announcement has been made that the will of the late Monsignor William O'Brien, by which he left practically all of his property to his Eminence Cardinal O'Connell for charitable and other purposes, is to be contested by relatives of the testator. One of the contestants is John O'Brien, now of Boston, a nephew of deceased, and the other, Mrs. Burke of New York, a sister of the testator. It is understood that the ground upon which the contest is to be made is that the monsignor was of unsound mind and that undue influence was used in causing him to dispose of his property as provided in the will. Mgr. O'Brien died July 29, 1922, and the will now in litigation was made in 1921.

BUILDING INSPECTORS AT EDSON SCHOOL

As the result of recent agitation concerning the structural condition of the Edson grammar school, venerable building of 33 years standing, Francis A. Connor, superintendent of public buildings, and Harold McCann, state inspector as to egress and fire hazards, have just completed a thorough investigation of the school and are at work on written reports to be submitted in the near future.

Supt. Connor said today he will make his report based on conditions exactly as he found them, but in the meantime, he asks for indulgence on the part of the general public and to refrain from passing judgment on the condition of the building, so as to preclude the possibility of unnecessarily alarming the students of the school district in question.

HEARING TODAY IN THE PROBATE COURT

A hearing was held this morning at the probate court room in Gorham street in the case of Cecelia Crann vs. Ellen Crann, administratrix for the late John J. Crann, Melvin G. Rogers of Quinn, Howard & Rogers, sitting as master.

In this case the plaintiff, who is the mother of the late John J. Crann, is suing to recover money, which she claims she owns, and which was in the custody of her son. The plaintiff claimed that she owned property in Muller Quarry, County Sligo, Ireland, and that the said property was sold by her son in 1920, while he was on a visit in Ireland, for the sum of $2200. She claims that shortly after the sale was effected she came to this country with her son, but before leaving the old country the sum of $900 was placed in a bank in Ireland in trust for her, leaving a balance of $1300. Her expenses across, she alleges, were paid from the $1300, but the son never gave her back the balance, and she is suing to recover from the estate whatever amount is due her.

CALL TEL. 572 FOR ALL ASH TROUBLES

In spite of the fact that the ash and waste collection division has not been a part of the health department for more than a year, this department in its city hall office and at the yard in Broadway daily is being besieged with telephone calls concerning the removal of ashes.

The ash division is a part of the street department, under the jurisdiction of the board of public service and all calls should be sent to the yard headquarters, telephone 572. Do not call either of the two health department numbers, 3390 or 519, for officials there know nothing of the workings of the ash and waste division.

MANY FACE STARVATION

Economic Aspects of French Occupation of the Ruhr Attract Attention

Food Shortage of Serious Proportions—Experts View Situation With Alarm

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19. (By the Associated Press).—Economic aspects of the French occupation of the Ruhr valley are attracting increasing attention here and the view is held in some official quarters that the economic problem now confronting the French is nothing less than a question of how to prevent starvation among the several millions of inhabitants of the valley.

Official dispatches indicate that a food shortage of serious proportions became evident immediately after the French military authorities moved in and declare that real suffering now exists in many places. Normal food supplies in the Ruhr it is said, have been almost entirely cut off for one week.

Those who have knowledge of the industrial conditions and the topography of the region as it bears on the food supplies view this situation with great alarm.

The Ruhr valley normally imports approximately 75 per cent of all the food it uses, according to government records. The 500,000 miners and several hundred thousand other industrial workers there must therefore depend almost wholly on outside food sources. The small agricultural production is expected here to be retained so far as possible by those who produce it. Evidence of efforts on the part of the farmers to save the food for themselves has in fact already reached official circles here.

The Chinese, though they have done considerably better lately, in general regard the profusion of arms is a very low calling.

Dr. Hermes in Charge

MUNSTER, Jan. 19. (By the Associated Press).—Dr. Andreas Hermes, federal minister of finance, has arrived here to assume supreme command of the German economic and financial defensive campaign against the French occupation of the Ruhr.

French Will Pay Bills

PARIS, Jan. 19. (By the Associated Press).—The French government will be ready to provide for the needs of the Ruhr district in currency on the next pay day in case the German government remains obstinate and withholds the needed facilities for payment, it was said in official circles today. A special issue of local currency is in view with the resources of the Ruhr valley as a guarantee.

The special issue will probably be made in marks although the French government is ready to undertake the substitution of francs if it becomes necessary. The amount of marks in possession of the Bank of France and the other French banks is insignificant in comparison with the needs of the district at the present value of the mark.

Peeling in French political circles is that Germany is riskier far more than France in obliging the allies to provide money for the Ruhr. The opinion is advanced that if the French franc is once introduced as in the case of the Saar valley, it would be difficult

SEIZE MINES AND BANKS

Mine Managers and Directors Arrested—Miners Threatened to Quit

Additional German Resistance to French Efforts to Ship Coal Develop

Orders for Strike of All Freight Railway Men in Ruhr Received From Berlin

French Carry Out Plan to Take Over Customs Districts of Rhineland

(By the Associated Press)

French threats to enforce reparations payments by confiscations were made good today by the seizure of several state mines in the Ruhr valley and various Reichsbank branches.

Mine managers and directors were arrested in some cases, miners in some of the seized pits threatened to quit if the French entered, it was reported.

Additional German resistance to French efforts to ship coal developed in the refusal of the Essen district railway administration to dispatch coal trains.

Orders for a strike of all the freight railway men in the Ruhr were received from Berlin and a general strike of these employees was expected before night.

Reichsbank branches in various parts of the Ruhr and the Rhineland were seized by the French, who claim the Germans were attempting to remove their funds to occupied Germany.

The French carried out their announced intention to take over the customs districts of the Rhineland. They took possession of the customs and coal tax funds. The state forests also were seized.

Reports of possible mediation between the allies and Germany by the League of Nations were discounted in Paris, where it is said the French feel they cannot consent to such a step until the results of the occupation become apparent.

The confiscation of the bank's funds by the French was carried out after the branch had attempted to close and remove its funds into the interior of Germany, according to the French officials. At 10 o'clock the French entered, took the entire treasury of the bank into their possession, and placed soldiers on guard over the premises.

A similar attempt to remove the Dortmund branch of the Reichsbank was foiled by the occupying troops.

HARDING'S MESSAGE TO IRISH FREE STATE

DUBLIN, Jan. 10. (By the Associated Press).—The Freeman's Journal says today:

"At the beginning of the month we invited the president of the United States to send through our columns a message to the citizens of the Irish Free State. The message which appears to have been delayed, has now reached us. It follows:

"President Harding, on behalf of the American government, expresses the sincere hope that the people of the Irish Free State, to whom long-standing ties of kinship and affection bind so many Americans, may enjoy the blessings of peace, prosperity and happiness."

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 19.—Filmdom today mourned the passing of Wallace Reid, motion picture star, whose death yesterday ended his long battle for health after he had abandoned the use of habit-forming drugs.

His death came as he lay in the arms of his wife, known in the screen world as "Wally," who was without a conflict with the inhabitants.

Seizure of State Mines

ESSEN, Jan. 19. (By the Associated Press).—Seizure of state mines in the Ruhr by the forces of occupation was begun today. The Bergmannslueck and Westerbild pits, near Ruhr, were occupied by the military, and Manager Albers was arrested for refusing to deliver coke. Troops appeared at the Moeller pits at Hiltrop and at the Rheinbald mines at Rottrop.

Dr. Baileysen, president of the state mine administration at Recklinghausen, responded to an invitation to appear before the military authorities and had not returned up to this afternoon. It is believed he was arrested.

It is reported that when the French representatives attempted to enter some of the mines that were seized the workers became greatly agitated, threatening that all the miners would come out of the pits if the French entered.

WITNESS TELLS OF THREAT MADE TO CLEAN OUT DANIEL FAMILY

Relative of Watt Daniel, Who With T. F. Richard Was Kidnapped and Murdered, Testifies at Bastrop Hearing Today—Actual Perpetrators of "Morehouse Atrocities" to Be Named

BASTROP, La., Jan. 19. (By the Associated Press).—William J. McDonald, 60, brother-in-law of J. L. Daniel, father of Watt Daniel, who with T. F. Richard was kidnapped near here Aug. 24, and whose mutilated bodies were found in Lake La Fourche last month, testified at the open hearing into the atrocities of masked men in Morehouse parish today that "Jap" Jones had told him the "whole Daniel family" would be cleaned out before the alleged attempt to assassinate Dr. B. M. McKoin was settled.

McDonald said Jones did not know he was related to the Daniel family and that after he became aware of it he asked him to forget it.

"Jones said 'We are going to clean out the whole damned Daniel family before this thing is settled,'" McDonald testified. "He did not seem to realize that I was related to the Daniel family. I called his name and he told me I hadn't got so much about it. I told him Dr. McKoin was never shot at."

"Do you know anything about the kidnapping?"

"Yes sir, I know it an hour before it happened. You see I was in Bonita at the time. You could hear all about it, except they didn't figure out the right parties kidnapped. After the kidnapping Jim Henry and I got to talking in his butcher shop about the kidnapping and he told me they should have killed them the night they caught them."

Question of Reparations and Occupation to Come Up Before Council

Representative of Sweden Expected to Move for Consideration at Meeting

PARIS, Jan. 19. (By the Associated Press).—The question of reparations and the occupation of the Ruhr it is expected in French circles will be brought up at the forthcoming meeting of the council of the League of Nations by Hjalmar Branting, who will sit for the first time as the representative of Sweden.

The council under a resolution adopted by the last assembly, may discuss reparations, but only insofar as approved by the allies, and the prospect continued to Page Three

JURY STILL OUT IN HERRIN RIOT CASE

MAYOR BOYLE OF NEWPORT BETTER

NEWPORT, R. I., Jan. 19.—Mayor Patrick J. Boyle, who was considered critically ill Sunday night, has so far recovered today as to be about the house and to eat rather heartily. Mr. Boyle, who started out this morning on his 17th term as mayor at intermittent periods, was elected and assumed office while in ill health, being a sufferer from a throat affliction the character of which has not been made known.

Daniel, Andrews and Neells on the Gallion road and they would not have had any more trouble with them." (The Gallion road kidnapping occurred Aug. 17.)

"Let it be known to him how much I approved of it and I added a few other words to make it more binding." Attorney General Cocco announced that he expected to establish today the identity of the actual perpetrators of what he termed the "Morehouse atrocities." Nineteen witnesses, including one woman, had been summoned to testify today at the hearing on activities of masked men.

Troops Break Camp

BASTROP, La., Jan. 19.—Machine Gun Company D, of the Louisiana National Guard, which has been on duty here in connection with the Morehouse investigation broke camp today, preparatory to leaving for New Orleans, its home station.

With the departure of the unit the military forces in Morehouse will consist of four automatic riflemen and 10 mounted men, the Jennings cavalry troops, half here and the remainder at Mer Rouge.

It is understood no more troops will be brought to Bastrop since the Morehouse infantry company of 100 men is only an hour and a half away, while units at other points could be brought here on short notice. Four companies were on duty in the parish at the inauguration of the open hearing.

30 INDICTED BY GRAND JURY

More Arrests in Connection With Strike Disorders at Harrison, Ark.

HARRISON, Ark., Jan. 19.—Aside from the arrest yesterday of two suspects indicted on charges of arson, and the announcement that a total of 30 indictments had been returned by the grand jury, no further development in the strike disorders was reported today. Further arrests, however, were predicted by Sheriff Shaddock. The "committee of 1000" and the "citizens court" last night made public the first statement of the results of efforts in the "armed action" inaugurated several days ago to apprehend those thought guilty of vandalism along the Missouri and North Arkansas railway. "What the civil and court authorities were unable to handle in the past two years," the committee's statement declared, "the citizens accomplished in two days time." With the investigations completed the committee, it was explained, would continue to function as a "clearing house." Its activities, one member pointed out, would consist mainly of questioning persons brought before it and awarding white ribbons to those found satisfactory. Denying a charge by W. S. Stone, grand chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers at Chicago, that "men and women are being shamefully treated," in some instances to the extent of lynching, Governor McRae at

Little Rock informed the union leader that authorities were in full control here and that lynching was not needed. PRES. HARDING CONTINUES TO IMPROVE WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—President Harding continued to improve today, but under the doctor's orders will remain in seclusion at the White House until he entirely shakes off the attack of grippe from which he has been suffering for the past few days. The president is transacting no official business and continues to spend most of his time lying down in his room. HEARING AT STATE HOUSE January 25 at 10:30 a. m. is the date and time set for a hearing on the bill of Rep. Henry Achin, Jr., to increase the area of Lowell by annexing land from adjacent towns. The hearing will be given by the committee on cities at the state house.

MEET BEHIND CLOSED DOORS

Veil of Secrecy Thrown About Conference on Prohibition Enforcement

Customs Officials and Dry
Authorities Plan to Cope With Rum Fleet

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—A veil of secrecy was thrown about a conference on prohibition enforcement in this vicinity, held today at the customs house between customs officials and prohibition enforcement authorities. It was assumed that the chief topic for discussion would be how to cope with the rum fleet which for more than a week has been camping off the Jersey coast, but acting Collector of the Port Stuart announced that the session would be executive and that no statement would be forthcoming at the close. Accompanying Mr. Stuart in the conference was deputy surveyor Sanders. The dry forces were represented by E. C. Yellowley, acting federal prohibition officer for New York state, and John D. Appleby, in charge of marine activities in this zone. Only six casualties have been reported in the rum fleet, which although varying from day to day, maintains an average strength of about 20 vessels. Thirty craft were captured by coast guards the first night of extensive rum-running, and a trawler believed to have been a unit of the fleet burned to the water's edge, yesterday. Dry agents have consistently declined to state the strength of their navy in this district, and today even more doubt arose concerning its strength. Several custom officials frankly admitted that the announcement made last week that the cruiser Lexington had been armed with machine guns was propaganda intended to throw fear into the smugglers. A vessel bearing the name Lexington has been lying for more than a week at the Battery, covered with rust and showing no machine guns or other weapons. Custom officials admitted that the only craft available last Thursday when the five prizes were captured off Highlands, N. J., was the small launch Surveyor, and that after the Gertrude W., an alleged rum-runner was caught, she had to be used in making the other captures.

CLASS IN GASOLINE AUTOS WEDNESDAY

John J. Gildea, who for the past three years has conducted classes in gasoline automobiles under the auspices of the University Extension, announces that the first of ten lectures to be given in Coburn hall of the high school will begin next Wednesday evening and continue weekly until the course is completed. A great many prospective entrants for the class went to the high school last night under the impression that Jan. 19 was scheduled as the opening date. Mr. Gildea was in Boston last night, where he delivered two lectures on the same subject before approximately 400 members of the Normal Art school. He expects to have a class of 150 enrolled. Similar classes are held regularly in Lawrence and Haverhill.

A man came into this office some time ago and made the above statement. He said he had two sets of teeth and could not eat with either of them. He made him a set and he came in the office later and said they were the only ones he could keep in his mouth while eating. In fact he could chew peanuts and eat apples without the least trouble. The reason for this is my particular method of taking impressions, study of the shape and relation of the jaws, and correct articulation of the teeth. Now, I can make you a set of teeth just as good as his. If your front teeth or rocks come in, for I make a specialty of difficult cases and will examine your mouth and give you advice free of charge. BURN ROUND ROBIN
How to Destroy Document
Denouncing War Record of Sen. La Follette

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 19.—(By the Associated Press) Public burning of "round robin" signed during the war by many University of Wisconsin professors denouncing the war record of United States Senator Robert M. La Follette, is ordered by a resolution introduced into the senate of Wisconsin legislature today by Henry A. Ober, administration leader.—This resolution introduced by Governor J. Francis, and backed by the La Follette bloc in control of the legislature directs the librarian of the state historical society to turn over the document containing the signatures of the university professors to the superintendent of public property who is ordered to destroy it.

A public demonstration is planned by the LaFollette backers himself held by the LaFollette backers if the resolution is adopted. Describing the document on file at the state library, the resolution said it contains "vicious aspersions on the record and character of Robert M. LaFollette, Wisconsin's most distinguished citizen," and that many members of the university faculty were induced to sign it under duress and intimidation and that they now desire the wrong done effaced from the house records.

THE MAYOR AND CITY SOLICITOR SPEAKERS

Mayor Donovan and City Solicitor O'Sullivan will be the speakers at the weekly noon-day luncheon of the Lowell ad club in the Girls' City club next Wednesday. On Tuesday evening next the members of the club will attend the "East or West" performance at the Lowell Opera House. George Wood, chairman of the sister city committee, has called a meeting for next evening to arrange plans for the conduct of this affair. The meeting will be held in the Macdon studio at 630.

LOWELL TEXTILE COUNCIL MEETING

Members of the Lowell Textile council will meet in Trades & Labor hall, Central street, this evening for the semi-annual election of officers. ANNUAL MEETING OF THE MINISTRY-AT-LARGE

At the 43rd annual meeting of the Ministry-at-Large held at the Free church in Middlesex street last night, the report of the minister was read and accepted, and officers for the coming year were elected.

The officers for the coming year are as follows: President, Dudley L. Page; vice presidents, Mrs. Emma Jefferson and L. A. Olney; treasurer, J. Harry Boardman; secretary, Henry H. Harris; directors at large, Mrs. M. H. Jefferson, Harvey B. Greene, Mrs. T. E. Parker, Herbert D. Burrage, A. Leon Hurd, C. J. Hobson, Mrs. C. Holson, Rev. A. C. Moffitt, Rev. J. E. Thomas; directors from the churches, St. John's episcop-opal, Mrs. O. O. Greenwood; Grace universalist, Rev. B. C. Downey; All Souls, Miss Harriet Coburn; Central M. E., Rev. J. C. Ricketts; First Presbyterian, Miss Emily Skilton; First Universalist, Rev. C. E. Fisher; St. Anne's, Rev. Appleton Granda; First Street Baptist, Rev. J. C. Hayes; Pawtucket Congregational, Mrs. W. T. S. Bartlett; First Congregational, Mrs. C. T. Upson; Centralville M. E., Arthur L. Hiss; Highland Congregational, Rev. Richard Peters.

The report of the minister, Rev. Geo. C. Wright, was as follows:

Thirty-six years in one pulpit is a long period of service, and in a city like Lowell, gives unmatched opportunity for observing changes that inevitably come with each generation. We are now in the midst of one of those periods of change that will make the life of the community in the next couple of decades very different from what it has been in any phase of its past history. The textile corporations are facing southward toward more attractive cotton, coal and labor conditions. Their changes of location and management are to bring about the transformation of a large-scale industrial and social center of neighboring towns and farms. The completion and use of the Memorial Auditorium is symbolic.

Another change of significance is the passing of large portions of real estate into the hands of a single nationality, whose business ventures are commonly associated with retail rather than large enterprises.

The cost of living during 1922, has remained high and also wages for labor, but there are influences that favor the workers whom this Free church of the Ministry-at-Large serves. These are improved business, strike settlements, more employment, growing demand for efficient workers, increased savings and thrift accounts and also the fact that there are more home-owners. The banks readily furnish capital to high-grade business managers and to obtain a store here, even at high rental, is difficult. The city's educational advantages are unexcelled; the churches are earnestly devoted to social activities and religious enlightenment; there is ample provision for care of the sick and relief of poverty.

The definite aim and purpose of this Free church of the Ministry-at-Large is to help its adherents to right understanding of life; to strengthen individual purpose rather rely on church traditions.

Many regard this Free church as their place of worship, though they have become widely scattered through the years of my pastorate, and by force of circumstances. Their appearance at our regular Sunday service is a pleasure and a gratification. Through the efforts of some of the groups of friends who meet with us and contribute to our support, the parlor and lower assembly room have been renovated. The building is old, and repairs are much needed.

Our poor's purse is open to the calls in sickness and distress, regardless of church affiliations. During 1922, we gave living supplies to 445 families, representing 2317 persons, at money expense of $2336.15. Owing to the physical difficulty of getting about since my recent illness, it has been necessary to call upon the assistance of my daughter. This organization is deeply indebted to her, as she has served without recompense.

With regret, I make record here of the death of Mrs. George Francis Richardson. Her husband was president of the Free church of the Ministry-at-Large for many years, and she its devoted friend and supporter. Her active interest began during the ministry of Rev. Horatio Wood and continued to the end of varied and useful life. We shall miss her inspiration and accompaniment, while at the same time we remember with gratitude her lifelong association. In the new generation which is now in possession of the new city, it is to be hoped that before long some one may appear capable of continuing her example of democratic friendliness and leadership.

BEAUTIFUL STAGE SETTINGS COMPLETED

Mr. H. H. Fish, the scenic artist for the new Al Lutteringer Stock Players, who are operating for a permanent season at the Opera House Monday, has prepared some unusually attractive settings for the first show that will be presented there next week. The show "East is West" is one that naturally lends itself to plenty of color and attractiveness and that Mr. Fish has done justice to the original production as it was presented in New York city in putting it on in this city. In particular is the opening scene of the Chinese Love Boat, where the Chinese go to buy wives for themselves. The setting is so realistic that the audience will fairly be lifted from this side of the ocean and transported in the Orient for the entire city.

Mr. Fish has made considerable of a reputation for himself for this particular kind of work and with his settings here in Lowell it is assumed the direction of all stage that patrons of the Opera House will see plays put on equally as good as the original Broadway productions.

MANY EMPTY STORES IN MIDDLESEX STREET

Here is a chance for someone to solve a genuine puzzle and do a little missionary work at the same time. Find the answer and you will please a lot of Lowell real estate men and private property owners interested in mercantile maris down on Middlesex street!

Twenty-three vacant stores in the short stretch from Tower's corner to the Middlesex street railroad crossing, are listed with local real estate men for either rental, lease or sale.

The fact that so many stores, most of which are small in area, are vacant with other streets in the central section of Lowell having few good store frontiers large or small vacant, is something that has mystified local real estate men.

The men who handle real estate by lease, sale or transfer, declare that there is no reason in the world why all of these vacant stores should not have tenants.

Rentals on Middlesex street are rated low enough, in the opinion of business men who occupy parts of trade on adjoining streets.

Real estate dealers say the amount of traffic down Middlesex street daily—and several times a day in very large totals when the textile mills release their workers at noon time and when the evening whistles blow—is the largest of any street of similar area in the city, and most everyone agrees.

Late last fall, there were numerous stores on the short Middlesex street stretch vacant or about to be vacated. In October only six stores were vacant, December 1, there were nine stores unoccupied, and today there

Two modern shop sections of mercantile areas have been completed during the winter, but in one place where there are several new small stores in a row, only two are occupied. The other places ready for occupants, have not been leased so far as known.

The real estate handlers of property down Middlesex street way, are thinking of starting a campaign of publicity, with Middlesex street vacant stores the topic for investigation, debate and disposal.

11 MORE K. K. K. LETTERS AT WOONSOCKET CLERK SOLVES MYSTERY FOR DETECTIVE

WOONSOCKET, R. I., Jan. 18.—Eleven more letters threatening life and property were received here today, similar in character to previous ones and signed "K. K. K." Today's collection brings the total to 26 since last Saturday.

The local postoffice, two coal companies, a church, hotel and several business men were the recipients today and police authorities now are actively investigating, with a view to rounding up some suspects.

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., Jan. 18.—A hotel clerk here today held the solution of a mystery presented to him yesterday by Sir Basil Thomson, former chief of Scotland Yard.

"I tell you, sir," exclaimed Sir Basil as he hastened for his train, "my pocketbook is gone; and I tell you there hasn't been a soul in my room but myself."

A maid found the pocketbook hidden beneath the pillow on the bed used by Sir Basil.

NO TRACE FOUND OF MISSING SCHOONER

NORFOLK, Va., Jan. 18.—Coast guard headquarters today still was without official information as to the whereabouts of the schooner Helveth, for which search by the coast guard cutter Manning since Monday had proved unavailing. A derelict reported floating off Winter Quarter, which some believed might be the missing boat, had not been found, officers reported.

The Helveth sailed from New York

for Charleston, S. C., Dec. 18, and failure to arrive at her port of destination was reported yesterday.

HOW SCHAEFER FORCED UMPIRE TO CALL GAME

"The funniest situation I ever saw three runs in the last of the fourth. It Cleveland back in 1905 or 1907," says Charley O'Leary, now assistant to Miller Huggins at New York.

"I was playing shortstop for Detroit at the time. When the game started it looked like rain. Cleveland made three runs in the last of the fourth. It looked as if we were beaten and of course we decided to play for rain.

"Hilly Evans was doing the umpiring. In the first of the fifth it started to sprinkle and we started to do everything possible to delay the game and annoy the umpire.

"Evans refused to be annoyed, and when our side was finally retired it was raining pretty hard. That made it a ball game and we were anxious for Bill to call it.

"Nothing doing," he replied, "you boys enjoyed yourself so much the last inning, it's a shame to deprive you of your fun."

"We played the next three innings in a driving rain. There was no chance of either side making a run. Evans let on he enjoyed the rain and was deaf to our entreaties to call it.

"Finally, Herman Schaefer, now dead, borrowed a raincoat and umbrella from a fan and appeared at his position at second in that regalia.

"He was the funniest sight I ever saw on the ball field, raincoat buttoned high up, umbrella in one hand, glove on the other.

"That was too much for Evans—he called it."

Trust Fund of $3800 For Brown University

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Jan. 19.—President W. H. P. Faunce of Brown university announced today that a trust fund of approximately $3800 had been contributed to the university as a free will offering by friends of John Howard Appleton, professor emeritus of chemistry at Brown. It is to be known as the John Howard Appleton lectureship fund and its purpose is to provide annual lectures at Brown on pure or applied chemistry. Professor Appleton after 50 years' service on the Brown faculty retired from active teaching in 1914. He is the only living graduate of the university whose portrait hangs in the Brown Art Gallery in Sayles hall. He is a member of the Brown class of 1863, and his three sons and three daughters also are Brown graduates.

REUNITE M. E. CHURCHES SEPARATED 79 YEARS

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Jan. 12.—Reuniting of the Methodist Episcopal church and the Methodist Episcopal church south, separated 79 years ago, upon the issue of slavery, approaches realization. This action followed a proposal by representatives of the northern body and the

Good Health Secret of Beauty

Beauty lies in the care a woman bestows upon herself and in keeping at bay those ailments peculiar to her sex, which drag her down and leave telltale traces upon her countenance. Sparkling eyes, the elastic step and a clear complexion never accompany organic troubles. Distressed expressions, a sallow complexion, dark circles under the eyes, lassitude, headaches, and mental depression are the telltale symptoms of women's ailments. Women so troubled should not lose a day in taking Leda Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, the most successful remedy known to overcome woman's life and restore health and beauty.—Adv.

EX-KAISER'S YACHT A TRADE SHIP

LONDON, Jan. 18.—The Hohenzollern, once the palatial pleasure yacht of the former German emperor, is being fitted out as a trade ship by the German government and will be sent on a cruise to the British Dominions. News that the Germans were attempting to get a share of the Dominion trade, which is the backbone of Britain's commerce, has caused English merchants to fit out two ships for a similar voyage.

The first vessel will be ready to sail by Feb. 1. Soon after another ship will start around the world in the opposite direction in an effort to beat the German boat to its goal.

The beautiful rose-pink furnishings and elegantly appointed cabins of the Hohenzollern have been torn out to make room for stunts that will display German goods.

RAPID RECOVERY AFTER TYPHOID AMAZES FRIENDS

Cisco Says Wincarnis Did It

"When I was able to walk around, the doctor said it would be a month or more before I would get back strength. I had pains on both of my sides and around my heart. One evening my brother saw an advertisement of Wincarnis and my mother got me a large bottle.

"By the time I had finished the bottle the pains on my right side were gone. I continued to take Wincarnis and soon the pain on my left side and around my heart disappeared and I quickly became well and strong and was feeling fine long before the time the doctor had said it would take me to get well. All my friends asked me what it was that I was taking that made me look well so quickly."

LONDON, Jan. 19.—(By the Associated Press) The return from Washington of the Baldwin financial mission without having effected a settlement of the British debt is disappointing, the Daily Express says today. It continues:

"If America is so unreasonable in her demands as to make it impossible for us to liquidate our obligations without causing widespread suffering in this country, affairs must wait until Washington is more amenable or until the state of the world's money market improves. TWO HELD IN DEATH OF MISS MANN, ACTRESS

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Jan. 19.—A photograph of Roger V. B. Clarke, held in connection with the mysterious death of Fritz Mann, classic dancer, whose body was found on the beach near here Monday, was identified early today as like that of a man who had accompanied the dancer to a cottage in La Jolla Sunday night and registered as "William Johnson and wife."

A. E. Kern, owner of the cottage, said there was remarkable resemblance between Clark and the man he had known as "Johnstone" but said he would not be positive until he had met Clark in person.

Meanwhile Chief of Police James Patrick of San Diego was arranging to bring Clark back from Los Angeles where he was taken into custody yesterday. Clark will be taken before the cottage owner today.

A second man held for questioning in connection with the young woman's death is Dr. L. L. Jacobs, civilian physician at Camp Kearney, whose connection with the inquiry has not been made known by the police. That he was examined for more than two hours yesterday afternoon before his arrest, however, is admitted by Chief Patrick.

A cottage at La Jolla at which Miss Mann and a male escort stopped Sunday night was located by investigators yesterday, and the owner later identified the body of the woman. Articles of clothing, identified by the girl's mother as belonging to Miss Mann, were found in the cottage. Clark is said to have told Los Angeles police he spent Sunday evening in Mr. and Mrs. Flowers' home here. Flowers said last night:

"Clark's statement that he spent Sunday night with Mrs. Flowers and myself is absolutely false."

Though the veterinary science was not systematically studied until the 15th century, it is said to have originated in Rome about 300 A.D.

FEED USEFUL WILD BIRDS

Division of Fisheries and Game Director Appeals to Friends of Birds

(Special to The Sun)
 STATE HOUSE, Jan. 19.—Appealing to bird lovers and sportsmen to feed the useful wild birds during the present heavy fall of snow, William C. Adams, director of the state division of fisheries and game, today solicited funds and grain to help his department carry on the work.

Mr. Adams suggests that grain be placed in sheltered locations with southern exposure and sand or coal ashes put out as a source of grit. Sweepings of barn floors and hay mows will be very acceptable to the birds, he declares.

He emphasizes that the birds to be fed are the ground-feeding variety such as the pheasant and quail. The non-useful birds such as the crows, blue-jays, starlings and the English sparrows should not be encouraged to come to the feeding stations, he says.

Applications for grain sent to the Division of Fisheries and Game, 505 State House, will be promptly filled or application can be made to the district wardens.

The director says that fish and game clubs, boy and girl scouts, rural mail carriers, teamsters and others can aid materially in this work.

The funds available for this purpose are limited, he says, and contributions of grain or money will be thankfully received and used exclusively for this purpose.

"It is earnestly hoped that this appeal will not go unheeded by those who are in a position to get out and feed the birds for if they neglect to assist the birds through this crisis, the severe weather will undoubtedly exact a heavy toll among our feathered friends," the director says. "Their best asset in combating the rigors of winter is a full stomach."

Urged to "Hold Out"

BERLIN, Jan. 19.—(By the Associated Press) The executive council of the Imperial Union of German Industries has sent Fritz Thyssen a message expressing "gratitude and pride at the manly attitude of the Ruhr industrialists and urging them to continue to hold out."

Dr. Hueber, acting chairman of the council, said that Germany's watchword must be to hold out under all circumstances. He asserted that the French nation would eventually realize that Premier Poincaré's policy was disastrous.

French Prevent Removal

MAYENCE, Jan. 19.—(By the Associated Press) The French have succeeded in preventing removal to the interior of Germany of the funds in the local branch of the Reichsbank, which was closed yesterday by the Germans on instructions from Berlin. The funds were confiscated by the occupational authorities.

French Seize Money

DUESSELDORF, Jan. 19.—(By the Associated Press) The French authorities today appropriated the money in the Dueseldorf branch of the Reichsbank. They also rounded up the automobiles of depositors who had come to the bank to draw money from the institution, seized the money withdrawn and retained possession of the automobiles.

A demand was made by the occupational authorities for a detail of 40 police to close the streets adjoining the bank, but the municipality refused to supply the men.

State Forest Seized

BRUNNEN, Jan. 19.—(By the Associated Press) The state forest in this region has been seized by the occupying forces. The local branch of the Reichsbank has been put under French guard.

Seize Coke Ovens

RECKLINGHAUSEN, Jan. 19.—(By the Associated Press) French troops today took possession of four coke ovens belonging to the Reichsbank and arrested the director, Herr Reichstein, who refused to hand over the records.

Shortage of Marks Critical

DUESSELDORF, Jan. 19.—The shortage of paper marks has reached a critical stage. The banks are refusing to give marks in exchange for amounts of more than the francs, five dollars or one pound sterling to a person. They say this restriction is made necessary by the seizure of the local branch of the Reichsbank.

Fruits of Occupation

BERLIN, Jan. 19.—(By the Associated Press) After a week of France's economic grip in the Ruhr, it seemed here today that M. Coste and General De Gaulle had received little more than their trouble for their pains in their attempts to enforce reprisals.

A few coal barges intercepted here and there and an occasional coal train reconsigned were the only fruits of the occupation apparent in the capital. Indeed, it was said that more coal was shipped yesterday to places outside of the occupied area than on Tuesday.

It is feared that the reluctance of shippers to move coal on the Rhine in the face of confiscation by the French may result in a complete shutting off of the domestic supply.

Reports Interest London

LONDON, Jan. 19.—(By the Associated Press) Two reports of efforts toward mediation in the Franco-German situation were read with interest by Londoners today.

That which came nearest home was an Essen despatch to the Times declaring that the German government was sending a confidential mission here to request Great Britain to lend her services in composing the Ruhr differences.

The other report, contained in reliable advice from Paris, reiterated that Italy was desirous of effecting a settlement between France and Germany, chiefly because of the extent of the French military operations which do not meet with official approval in Rome.

Officials here, however, profess to see little hope of success for a mediation plan at this time, when Williamson's policy has the whole-hearted support of all Germans, including the nationalists.

The Times' Essen representative in a despatch filed last night, says that

Berlin Denies Report

LONDON, Jan. 19.—Reuter's Berlin correspondent says he is officially informed that there is no foundation to the report that Germany contemplates sending a mission to London to obtain British mediation in the Ruhr.

Delay Sign of Weakness

ESSEN, Jan. 19.—(By the Associated Press) The announcement at French general headquarters that the customs and forest control to be inaugurated immediately in the Rhineland would be promulgated shortly in the Ruhr, brought forth the comment in German circles that the French military authorities were reluctant to apply such penalties in the newly occupied area.

Delay in enforcement of the measures here is regarded by the Germans as a sign of weakness. They declare that the Rhineland, having submitted without a murmur to four years of occupation, are now the first to be thus punished.

As the French, Italian and Belgian customs experts completed their plans for controlling the export business of the Rhineland, which includes 70 per cent of Germany's dye trade as well as the products of the Krupp plant at Als-la-Chapelle, the Ruhr valley offered further resistance and opposition to the regulation of coal shipments. The amount thus taken over so far is small.

Home French for Senting Prices There was great rejoicing today over the letter written to General Denighe by Dr. Grotzner, president of Rhineland Prussia, in which he declared that the French have been responsible for the increased living costs in the Ruhr and that they are incapable, by reason of their inexperience, of administering the Ruhr valley industries.

The communication also warned the French that famine appeared unavoidable. In reply to the French retort that this was an attempt at blackmail,

Dr. Grotzner asserted that export houses in Canada and Holland, which have been supplying the Ruhr with cereals and other food, have given notice that shipments could not be continued.

Bar German Patriotic Songs

The Franco-Belgian order forbidding the singing of "Deutschland Über Alles" or the "Die Wacht Am Rhein" or six months imprisonment is received with disgust. It promises to be a real hardship for the pent up feelings of the Ruhr workers who have frequently found an outlet in these and other patriotic songs.

The Germans as a week continue to concentrate their resistance to economic and financial lines. To a neutral observer this appears to have put the French on the defensive. The control commission, however, adopts an optimistic attitude asserting that the German civilian and the Ruhr workman will be the first to suffer from such tactics.

K. OF C. MINSTREL SHOW AT AUDITORIUM

When the curtain goes up in the Auditorium at 8:15 tonight it will mark the opening of one of the best minstrel shows ever put on in this city, and from then until the curtain comes down after the last encore the audience will be well entertained for the show is the K. of C.'s annual minstrel for the support of their Guild.

There will be no lagging during the evening with such men as Dan Brennan, Jack McArthur, Charles Chas. and John J. Keefe. The soloists, Miss Kathleen Jennings, Miss Sadie Sheehan, Miss Dorothy Nolan, Miss Madeline McLaughlin, Miss Dorothy McFarland, John P. Keefe, "Jimmy" Donnelly, Timothy Flanagan, John Doyle and Thomas Tobin, are too well known in local musical circles to need an introduction. In addition there will be a chorus of two hundred mixed voices that have been well trained for their parts in the show. John P. Keefe will be the interlocutor and William Thornton the director.

Every year the K. of C. puts on a minstrel show, and every year it is a little better than the year previous, and it has been the endeavor of these in charge to make this year the best, and from the advance sale of tickets it is well nigh assured that the audience will be larger than ever before.

Dancing will start immediately after the show and will continue until one o'clock.

SIBERIAN TIMBER TRADE STOPS

VLADIVOSTOK, Siberia, Jan. 19.—The timber trade of the Primoria, one of its greatest assets, bringing an annual revenue of one million gold roubles to previous governments has come to a standstill since the soviet took over the administration of this province. As a result of concessionaires to foreign firms, chiefly Japanese, those being in Russian capital available, exports of timber reached 14,000,000 feet in 1921 and promised to be even greater this year when the government cancelled all concessions and imposed taxes and conditions which made export impossible and unprofitable.

The concessions covering over a million acres which have been cancelled were confined to the Straits of Tartary.

Not only has the soviet annulled the concessions but it has demanded that the concessionaires shall pay, to it stumping on cut timber, which they had already paid to the previous government. As a result logging camps and mills have closed down and there were no bidders for concessions recently offered at public auction.

A timber merchant discussing the situation said: "The nearest markets for the sale of timber are China and Japan, and these countries take from 70 to 80 million cubic feet a year from America, which naturally keeps the market price of timber. Instead of developing export by reducing the price for felling and for railway transport, instead of the abolishment of export taxes and reducing for loading timber in order to compete with America, the actions of the local authorities are directed in raising its price, which was already high, has been increased by 10 to 12 per cent, for the purpose of clearing areas over which the timber has been cut. As a result of this and the increased demands of labor the cost of laying down a log in Korea is 80¢ per ton. This log sells in Korea from 70 to 80 sen. The same applies to fishing concessions."

BAR STRIKE MEETINGS

Striking R. R. Shopmen Forbidden From Holding Public Meeting

SHAWNEE, Okla., Jan. 18.—Enforcement of an order prohibiting striking railroad shopmen or others from holding public meetings and street gatherings "for the purpose of disorder, threats or intimidation" began today when federal, county and city officials and members of a citizens' committee united to prevent further acts of violence in Shawnee in connection with the Rock Island shop strike.

Last night in the name of Mayor Garuth, United States Marshal McDonald, Sheriff Butler and J. I. Shus, police chief, warning that violation of the order would mean prosecution. Citizens were called upon to maintain order and assist the authorities in preventing depredations on homes of men who have filled the places of strikers, and other forms of intimidation. Officers had the assurance of financial and physical support from the citizens' committee. About 250 business and professional men constitute the body.

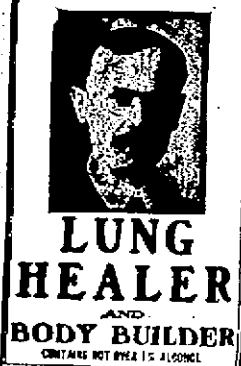

The meeting of the committee and the issuance of the proclamation followed an investigation of the alleged meeting Tuesday night of the home of George M. Petty, bootmaker, foreman at the Rock Island shops. Five similar explosions have occurred in various parts of the city during the last two months and there have been several fires declared to have been of incendiary origin.

OUR BOARDING HOUSEJURY TO GO TO ROOT OF WHIPPING CASE

HOUSTON, Tex., Jan. 18.—Having failed to make a case against the first suspect arrested in connection with the Goose Creek whipping cases, Sheriff T. Blinford and agents of the district attorney's office had a second man in jail here today and planned to arrest two or three more.

Claude Buckley, the first suspect, was released after but a few minutes questioning by the grand jury yesterday. It was said he established an alibi.

The second man is held on a charge of assault to murder after having been identified by both Mrs. R. J. Harrison and R. A. Armand, victims of a masked band on the night of Jan. 5.

The jury is working under instructions to lay aside all other matters and go to the root of the Goose Creek attack.

WONDER BARGAIN BASEMENT—It's a Surprise

CAMPAIGN OF ADVERTISING FOR LOWELL PROPOSED AT AD CLUB MEETING BY SEC'Y GALLAGHER

At the meeting of the Lowell Ad Club, Secretary-Treasurer Edward W. Gallagher in retiring from office made an appeal for an advertising campaign for Lowell and read a statement of what cities all over the country are doing along this line to attract business. He showed that some of the southern cities are conducting extensive advertising campaigns, to draw thither the cotton factories of the north. He urged the advertising of Lowell as one of the activities that should engage the attention of the club during the present year. The statement follows:

As an advertising club we should have something related purely to advertising to work upon—therefore, I propose that the Lowell Advertising Club set to work immediately to plan for a countrywide advertising campaign for Lowell under the slogan, "Tell the World About Lowell!"

Progressive cities throughout the country are now building up their resources and strengthening what they have by advertising and by publicity campaigns—which may be general in nature or for a specific purpose such as home seekers, industries, conventions, tourists, automobilists, etc.

I would not propose a purely local campaign for Lowell, but one that would reach throughout the country.

Lowell may not have the advantages that some cities have, but it has some advantages that other cities haven't and that's what we should stress in any campaign. In any event publicity of the favorable kind would be helpful to Lowell.

The plan of campaign is something which should be worked out by the Lowell Advertising Club as well as the method of financing which may be either by an appropriation by the city or a community fund. All media of influence should be used: newspapers, magazines, outdoor signs, direct mail, etc.

It is a subject which needs deep study and on which this club should set to work immediately.

To show you what some cities are doing in the line of community advertising I wish to present these figures: for cities that have made appropriations for magazine or newspaper advertising together with the chief object of advertising and the amount expended:

Automobiles: Minneapolis, $2000.
Tourists: Denver, $80,000; San Antonio, Tex., $125,000; Portland, Me., $5000; San Diego, Cal., $15,000; Culverton, Tex., $3500; Jamestown, N. Y., $2500; Auburn, N. Y., $500; Trinidad, Colo., $2000; Kearney, Neb., $500; St. Augustine, Fla., $1000.

General: Portland, Ore., $10,000; Seattle, Wash., $7500; Richmond, Va., $10,000; Nashville, Tenn., $25,000; Tacoma, Wash., $3000; Norfolk, Va., $300.
Home seekers: Berkeley, Cal., $3500; El Paso, Tex., $1500; Walla Walla, Wash., $7000.
Winous, Minn., conventions, $1400.
Factories: Keokuk, Ia., $12,000; Elmira, N. Y., $300; Quincy, Ill., $1100; Adrian, Mich., $300; Paterson, N. J., $300; York, Pa., $700; Charleston, W. Va., $3500; Hannibal, Mo., $300.

Other cities which have conducted advertising campaigns either on a smaller or larger scale: Dover, N. H., $500; Mass., $500; Portsmouth, N. H.; Topeka, Kan.; Greenville, S. C.; St. Louis.

These cities have projected campaigns as follows: Detroit, $100,000; Kansas City, $75,000; Chicago, $150,000; Seattle, $70,000; San Francisco, $100,000; Denver, $60,000; Sioux City, $15,000; Jacksonville, $25,000; Greenville, S. C.; Boston, Mass.

The advertising club of Columbus, Ga., is co-operating with other organizations of business men in Columbus in raising $100,000 to advertise Columbus.

Columbus has a good advertising club and its officers and members are anxious to contribute their share—and more—in this big undertaking.

It is a selling proposition throughout. First, they have the job of selling the city itself on its own opportunities and the importance of its advantages to the world outside; and then comes the task of putting over a campaign that will sell these advantages to the interests outside.

The Town Criers of St. Paul are now in the midst of a campaign. Instead of selecting a commercial article around which to build a complete advertising campaign, the club has selected the city as the subject.

The mere planning of this campaign is something from which no individual will benefit directly, and yet a problem in which all may participate, as he would a course of study in which he is particularly interested.

What more beneficial service should the Lowell Advertising Club undertake than to give the city the benefit of expert study on the publicity problem on their own city?

The Advertising Club of Tacoma, Wash., is sponsoring a campaign to raise $50,000 to advertise Tacoma.

California is planning a nation-wide campaign.

Portland, Ore., is now busy raising $300,000 advertising fund.

Portland, Me., is planning for a campaign.

The state of Florida will probably break into print soon with a $1,000,000 campaign.

Why is it that the south and west are progressing so rapidly? It is because they push themselves; they go out after business. They let the world know of their advantages.

For instance here is a page advertisement detailing the "Conditions for Successful Manufacturing" in relation to Greenville, S. C., the ninth of a series sent broadcast throughout the country. And then they ask why the south is drawing the textile industry from the north. Perhaps if the north were a little more enthusiastic about the advantages it has and the south hasn't, it might counteract this trend to the south.

The city that gets the publicity gets the business.

The city that gets the advertising grows.

Property will increase in value when the outside world knows your city is awake.

If your city doesn't go out and get after the trade, some neighboring city will. If they do, they'll get the business you should get.

Long-Standing Stomach Trouble of New Haven Woman Entirely Ended—Feels 20 Years Younger

"Since taking Tanlac I feel twenty years younger, my strength has returned and I have gained five pounds," declared Mrs. E. V. Brown, high esteemed resident of 24 Henry Street, New Haven, Conn.

"I suffered terribly from stomach trouble for three years and was badly run down, weak and nervous. My appetite fell away to nothing because I couldn't crave food and anyway nearly everything I would eat caused me such agony from pains in my stomach. Gas bloated me all up and pressed around my heart so that sometimes I could hardly breathe, and my unstrung nerves would not let me sleep.

"My daughter, Mrs. E. M. Stedicks, had symptoms similar to mine, and she got such fine relief from Tanlac I was persuaded to try it. It wasn't long after I started that I began getting better, and now I have such an appetite I can enjoy my meals just like my little granddaughter, and everything agrees with me. I am in perfect health again, thanks to Tanlac, and just can't praise it too highly."

FLIES FROM DAYTON TO NEW YORK IN 4 HOURS

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—Lieut. Alex Pearson and Bradley Jones yesterday broke the time record for an airplane flight between Dayton and New York, landing at Mitchell Field, Long Island, at 4:29 p. m., unofficial time, making the distance in four hours and three minutes.

The previous record was four hours and 30 minutes. Lieut. Pearson, who piloted a D-11 plane, said he had taken advantage of a southwesterly gale which had prevailed throughout the trip.

Official clocks at the field registered 4:32 p. m., when the plane landed on Pearson's watch showed 4:29 p. m.

Although the haze and the strong winds encountered interfered somewhat with a test of the sextant, which was said to have been the prime purpose of the flight, the results were satisfactory, he asserted and another test would be made on the westward journey.

The flight was made at an altitude of between 2500 and 4000 feet.

Lieut. Pearson said he flew over Springfield, Columbus, Zanesville and Moundsville, O.; Pottsville, Harrisburg, Reading and Philadelphia, Pa., and direct from Trenton, N. J., to Mitchell Field.

TRUCK SKIDS INTO ELECTRIC CAR

A large truck owned by the John T. Connor company collided with a street car in the square last night interfering with traffic for about half an hour.

The truck, in endeavoring to pass the car, skidded, and a corner of the body wedged into one of the car windows so that neither car nor truck could move. After considerable delay the truck was pushed away from the car and proceeded to its destination.

ATTACHMENTS FILED

Two attachments, one in the sum of $5000 and the other $10,000 were filed yesterday at the registry of deeds office against Herbert A. Rugg in actions of tort brought by Mr. and Mrs. Philip Goldman and Mr. Philip Goldman respectively. These actions are for trespass and damages to the business and are based on the will of the jury in the case tried at the recent session of the superior court, which suit was brought by John J. Hickman, executor of the will of Bertha Luge Gildard, a sister of Mr. Rugg against the Goldmans. The jury in that case found in favor of the Goldmans.

SUFFERED WITH ECZEMA YEARS
In Rash, Itched and Burned. Cuticura Heals.

"I suffered from eczema for years. Every part of my body was affected excepting my face and below my eyebrows. It broke out in a rash and itched and burned so that I was always scratching. The scratching caused eruptions, which later scaled over. My clothing aggravated the breaking out, and I lost sleep."

"I sent for a free sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and got relief. I purchased more, and after using three cakes of Soap and two boxes of Ointment I was healed." (Signed) Meyer Stroszky, 558 E. 1st St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

MOVE TO UNITE NORTH AND SOUTH IRELAND

LONDON, Jan. 18—Lord Glenavy, chairman of the Irish Free State senate has approached the government of Northern Ireland with a view to effecting a union of the north and south, says a Belfast dispatch to the Central News. The correspondent declares that leading Ulster citizens have received letters from prominent supporters of the Free State government urging the north to "come in" in the hope that the strife between the two factions might thereby be ended.

Opinion in Belfast inclines to the belief that the advances are not likely to bear fruit, the dispatch adds.

DOG IS HERO OF TREE EPIC

Major, a large setter, was seized with a fit and lay paralyzed at Cumminsville, O., in the path of an onrushing train. A passing freight prevented Major's friends from reaching him. But Fritz, a little airedale, rushed between a moving freight car, reached Major and rolled him off the tracks to safety. Picture shows Major (left), Fritz and their friend, Miss Anna Dumbloy.

ACTIVE CAMPAIGN FOR NEW MEMBERS

Healthy interest is still being maintained in the local work and progressive plans for future growth of the Y.W.C.A. Although the bad weather of the month has somewhat handicapped the new membership campaign, the various committees are not disheartened. The campaign opened with strong impetus on Monday last, and yesterday the names of many new members were down on the official lists. The quota sought is 500. A large thermometer has been placed in the lobby and new records the progress made each day.

The postponed board meeting will be held tomorrow afternoon, where the regular business will be discussed. The local basketball team will play Lawrence Y.W.C.A. tomorrow in the latter city. The local team members are Miss Rosella Hogan, captain and right guard; Miss Elizabeth Joyce, left guard; Miss Germaine Bennett, left forward; Miss Helen Latour, jumping center; Miss Anna Robert, side center; Miss Elizabeth Fleming, substitute. The business manager of the team is Miss Alice O'Brien.

Local rooters are to leave the Lowell Y.W.C.A. in a truck at 4:30 o'clock, with the physical director, Miss Mildred MacArthur, in charge.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

R. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

The appearances of Harry Holmes and Florida La Vera in "Themselves," at the R. F. Keith theatre, this week, are being warmly received. Their act is distinctive in every way, and it gives an idea of satire as one will find often on the stage. Freda and

Anthony in their tumbled talk and comedy are good numbers in the list of entertainers while James Dutton & Co. in a high class musical here in a tumbuck act. Paul and Goss, a pair of snappy juveniles, put forth a turn called "The Co-Weds" which is a comedy. It is a splendid turn. Then there are Emil Boreo, Russian comedian, the Rose Revue, a hip-top dancing act, and Boy and Boyer, comedy acrobats.

RIALTO THEATRE

In the complete change of program to be seen at the Rialto theatre beginning this afternoon, the feature has Constantine Blumey in "First Love." A supporting feature introduces William Dutton in "The Silent Vow," which is a story of a young man's love for a girl who is a prisoner of war.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

George Ada never wrote a more human story than "Back Home and Broken," the feature attraction of the current program at the Merrimack Square theatre. As played by Thomas Melton on the screen, it is an attraction that one cannot afford to miss. Another big feature for the week-end is "On the High Seas," starring Dorothy Dutton and Jack Holt. This has been aptly described as a melodrama of the sea. It is packed with thrills.

"THE HOTTENTOT" COMING

Laughter, thrills and love are combined in "The Hottentot," Thomas H. Ince's new comedy, which comes to the Merrimack Square theatre for four days, commencing Sunday. The play is adapted from the stage play in which Willie Foster scored a tremendous success. There is a strong love interest to capture the romantic imagination and there is plenty of dramatic action to satisfy the lover of thrills. Douglas McLean and Madge Bellamy play the leading roles.

THE STRAND

Two truly commendable pictureizations are being shown at The Strand during the week-end. The first is "Secrets of Paris," with an all-star cast headed by Lew Cody and including Rose Coghlan, Eric Shumann, Dolores Cassinelli, Montana Love, Gladys Suletto and others. The second is William Farina in "A Self-Made Man." Besides the above there is the usual comedy and weekly. Don't miss this picture treat. It's worthy of your consideration.

"THE JOLLY TEN" CLUB

A club called "The Jolly Ten" has been organized in Lowell. The first meeting was held at the home of Miss Frances Carr on Sunday, Jan. 14, and plans were made to encourage sports and social functions among the younger set of the city. The ten members are the Misses Frances and Evelyn Carr, Zelda Girard, Ida Ringeman, Edith Katzen, Hertha Levee, Nettie and Rose Rostler, and Lillian and Pearl Wiener.

Influenza Hits U. S. Naval Academy

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Jan. 19.—Influenza has struck the United States naval academy, 150 midshipmen and 43 enlisted men being confined in the naval academy hospital. It is stated the institution is crowded and that extra help has been engaged. All cases, so far, are in mild form. It is understood the cases have been developing at the rate of 15 or 20 a day.

George E. Law, Brazil, (Ind.), justice of the peace, says he's wed 10,443 couples, more than twice as many as any other man in the world. They, with their children, would make up a city of more than 50,000 inhabitants, says Law. Here's Law's "marriage mill" with the chairs he has marked to facilitate spicing parties.

BOSTON LADIES' OUTFITTERS—"Store Ahead"

Abe Lincoln Said:

"You can fool all the people part of the time; some of the people all the time, but you can't fool all the people all of the time." Some stores promising something for nothing—offering merchandise at less than cost—try to make you think they are charitable institutions—but Lincoln was right, they can't get away with it. The Boston Ladies' Outfitters is successful because it always gives the best values in Lowell—no exaggerated mark-downs—no bankrupt stocks—no sale goods—finest quality—newest in style—always at lower prices than elsewhere.

Engineer Blamed for Wreck

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Responsibility for the wreck on the Southern Pacific at Humble, Tex., Dec. 13, in which 22 persons were killed and 11 injured, was placed today by interstate commerce commission inspectors upon J. N. Smith, engine watchman, who had been placed in charge of a light engine on a side track at Humble. Smith, the inspectors' report said, moved the engine to a point so near the main track that a passing passenger train was side swiped and wrecked.

A GLASS OF SALTS
CLEARS PIMPLY SKIN

Says Indigestion Results From an Excess of Hydrochloric Acid

Undigested food delayed in the stomach decays, or rather ferments, the same as food left in the open air, says a noted authority. He also tells us that indigestion is caused by hyperacidity meaning there is an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach which prevents complete digestion and starts food fermentation. Thus everything eaten sour in the stomach much like garbage in a can, forming acid fluids and gases which inflame the stomach like a toy balloon. Then we feel a heavy, lumpy misery in the chest; we belch up gas we eructate food or have heartburn, flatulence, water-brash or nausea.

He tells us to lay aside all digestive aids and instead get from any pharmacy four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and drink it while it is effervescing, and furthermore, to continue this for a week. While relief often follows the first dose, it is important to help neutralize the acidity, remove the gas-making mass, start the liver, stimulate the kidneys and thus promote a free flow of pure digestive juices.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, and is made from the salt of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and sodium phosphate. This harmless salts is used for many stomach disorders with excellent results.—Adv.

NEAR BENEDICT HONORED

Postmaster Delisle is Tendered Bachelor Party at the Lafayette Club

Postmaster Xavier A. Delisle, who on Wednesday next will be married to Miss Virginia Laura White of Washington, D. C., was tendered a bachelor party at the Lafayette club in Wamsalott street last evening.

X. A. DELISLE

The affair was attended by about 100 friends of the young man, who presented him a beautiful silver chest. The affair was a total surprise to the benedict-to-be, who was induced to go to the club in the early part of the evening by his intimate friend, Rep. Henry Achin. Upon entering the club parlor the young man was quickly surrounded by his friends, and in behalf of those present, Ennio Gagnon, treasurer of the organization, made the presentation. Mr. Delisle responded in fitting terms and his address was followed by remarks by Rep. Achin and Councilors J. A. N. Chretien, Arthur Genest and Maurice Lambert.

Later all repaired to the dining-room, where an appetizing buffet luncheon was served under the direction of Chef William Rousseau. The remainder of the evening was taken up with games and entertainment numbers, which lasted until a seasonable hour, after which Mr. Delisle was showered with best wishes. Mr. Delisle will leave tomorrow afternoon for Washington, D. C., and will return to this city with his bride in the early part of February.

LOMASNEY AND CURLEY BURIED HATCHET

BOSTON, January 18.—Martin M. Lomasney will throw every ounce of his political power into the scales to secure for Mayor Curley the democratic nomination for governor two years hence, notwithstanding the fact that the West End Mahatma backed John R. Murphy to beat Curley 11 months ago.

This was the consensus of opinion among the political philosophers who observed what went on at the democratic city committee's biennial meeting and election last night in Fenway hall, when Pres. John L. Fitzgerald of the committee, commonly recognized as Lomasney's political field marshal, was unanimously re-elected to another two-year term.

Francis A. McLaughlin of conspicuous Curley sympathies put Fitzgerald's name in nomination, even though, in past weeks McLaughlin's own name and that of Patrick J. Brady of West Roxbury, another staunch Curleyite, were most commonly mentioned as the men likeliest to succeed Fitzgerald if the reported truce between the Curley and Lomasney forces was merely another report.

AN ESSENTIAL OF SUCCESS

Good streets and good connecting highways are essential to the success of every city.

In this prolonged period of heavy snow, we are having a good illustration of the partial paralysis of transportation and business due to bad streets and at the same time a negative sort of demonstration of the importance and necessity of good streets.

Here we are as a result of heavy snow upon the streets for a single week, with many streets still impassable and the car service badly crippled. The electric cars have become practically the only medium of conveyance, the automobiles having been rendered almost useless in the deep snow.

The street department has done its best to open up the streets on which no carlines run in order that motor vehicles could enter; but still a considerable number of these streets are impassable to such vehicles. The street department has been asked to clear a passage for funerals, and has done so as far as practicable.

We have here an illustration of the injurious effect of bad streets upon every kind of business and per contra the necessity and advantage of good streets. In the future we must adopt more practical methods of clearing the streets of snow and in order to make our city more attractive and to increase the public facilities for transportation, we must have better streets.

The era of the automobile and the motor truck makes this imperative. The cities that have the best streets are likely to have the best line of business. Good streets are, therefore, a condition precedent to good business. The same may be said of good roads. The city that cannot be reached by first class highways will be avoided.

Hence in planning for the prosperity of a city, a primary consideration is good streets and good highways connecting with neighboring cities and towns. This is why we must devote greater attention to street work and adopt a definite system the development of which will eventually give us first class streets and particularly attractive roads passing through our city. Most cities are but way stations for the vast army of tourists who are continually traveling in all directions and who seek the finest roads and avoid the cities that are not located on such routes. Cities have to adapt themselves to the new conditions and the sooner they do this, the sooner will they be recognized as up-to-date and among the foremost not only for transients, but for residence and business.

Business at present is suffering because of demoralized railroad transportation. There is a shortage of cars, a shortage of locomotives, a shortage of skilled men to do effective repairs. Here is a case in which the roads viz. the lines of railroad are all right; but they are not or cannot be used to capacity because of other difficulties. Here again the paralyzing effect of bad transportation conditions is seen. Business prosperity will be hampered until these conditions are remedied. It is but a corollary to the proposition that good streets and good connecting highways are essential to the success of every city. Paralyze the transportation system and you paralyze business. We have had a mild proof of all this in the depressing effect upon general business resulting from many streets being impassable for over a week from deep snow. The lesson is obvious and our city departments will undoubtedly profit by the experience.

THE "BLOC" FAD

In some states the word "bloc" appears to be catching among ardent legislators who discard other means by which to put through pet measures supposedly for the good of all the people but very frequently for the good of a private few.

We have read of the doings in Rhode Island's legislative halls within the past few days, with an all-night session and the reading of extracts from almanacs, dictionaries and even the Bible. Now comes a dispatch from Albany that "bloccs" are popular in the new assembly there, although New York state has now a democratic governor, Mr. Smith, and a very able gentleman too, judging from reports. This bloc business is being overdone. Blocs are no longer popular in American legislative halls. Congress at Washington has had enough of them. The American people are tired of their doings. There is too much log-rolling for particular interests and too little attention paid to the needs of the people as a whole.

INTELLIGENCE

Three hundred babies are given so-called intelligence tests, at a meeting of American Psychological Association.

Just what is intelligence? It certainly is not merely the possession of facts, for the average schoolboy of 1923 knows more concrete facts than did Socrates in the days when science and most of the world were unexplored.

We can have a lot of fact-knowledge without being intelligent. Any bottle can be filled with milk. Real intelligence is in reasoning power, the ability to distinguish right from wrong and the logically true from the obviously spurious. It is the ability to compare, to apprehend, to recognize, to distinguish and to draw right conclusions.

TOWN ON TOBOGGAN

Italy cables that the whole town of San Lorenzo Bellizzi, is slowly sliding down a mountainside. It has moved 2000 feet in two years. The ground under the town is slipping in one solid piece, like a sled carrying a boy. Houses have become tottery and a catastrophe is threatened. But the people take a chance and refuse to move.

It reminds you of householders along big rivers, who flee to the mountains during floods, then move back where they are sure to be flooded again. People are like moths, returning to the candle until it gets them. Who loves the danger will perish in the danger. We make the same mistakes, commit the same foolishness over and over. The drunkard fears whiskey, but doesn't stop drinking it. In reality, he wants to be its victim.

COSTLY ROADS

Our country now has around 12,400,000 autos and motor trucks, the manufacturers report after a check-up.

Meantime the nation is spending $750,000,000 a year on roads. Assuming that roads nowadays are almost exclusively for motor traffic, each car is responsible for $60 of the yearly paving bill.

Figuring it another way, $300 worth of roads is built for each new car manufactured. As long as you are helping pay it, you might as well have a car and wear out your share of the roads. The upkeep of the car however is a matter worth considering.

LURE OF WEALTH

A Boston man goes to prison for stealing $300,000 at the age of 73. Previously, through his long life, he had been so honest and reliable that he had risen to a high business position of trust and a comfortable state of prosperity.

In one stroke he makes a lifetime of effort. You wonder why a man of 73 suddenly desired great riches at a time when he was too old to enjoy wealth. He could hope to live only a few years at best.

The answer is an old one: Most of us never know when we have enough. We keep on grasping, even though the thing grasped at would be of no use to us if we got it.

CHILDREN'S DEFECTS

Experts examining the school children of Gary, Ind., for physical defects have found only 4.5 per cent or 142 out of a total of 3,125 to be free from such defects.

The most common defects are affections of the nose and throat, adenoids, diseased tonsils, decaying teeth, malnutrition, underweight and some other ailments. In all probability, the children of Gary are not much different from those of any other community. Although these defects do not present any serious danger at the time, it is important that they be remedied, as otherwise the defects of childhood will be carried to adult age.

The Lowell Advertising club has given the people of Lowell a greater appreciation of the value of advertising. It has induced thousands of people to read the advertisements who formerly passed them over as of no importance. It has also created a healthy community spirit in favor of boosting Lowell and making the best of our opportunities for civic improvement. For a club that has just finished one year's work, it is certainly a healthy organization and one that can accomplish much good for Lowell and for her people.

The street department payroll of $23,500 indicates in a measure the effort made to keep the business streets open. The depth of snow renders this a very difficult task; but it is quite apparent that the department is not well equipped for the removal of snow without a great waste of time and the employment of a greater force than would be necessary if the proper machinery were available.

We do not think there is any sentiment in Lowell in favor of extending the municipal pension roll. There are several persons drawing liberal pensions from the city who are better able to earn a living than many who have to work hard for every cent they earn.

Lawrence citizens have shown the right kind of public spirit in raising a fund to help the city pay for the removal of snow from the principal streets. The automobile club started the movement and the result although not enough to clear many streets, showed the right spirit.

So far as we can find out, Henry Ford has not yet announced his candidacy for president. He is doing very well for the present on his 105,000 cars per month, which give him a much greater income than he would draw from the White House job.

The winter carnival to be started at Fort Hill park may be somewhat late; but we are likely to have several more weeks of very cold weather in which such sports can be enjoyed.

Senator Lodge is blamed for raising a point of order that put a stop to the distribution of free seeds. If he never does anything worse than that he will be forgiven.

A state university could conduct courses of study most needed by the masses. The other colleges never do that. They are concerned only with those who are able to pay.

There has also been a revolution on the island of Corfu. Perhaps you remember that famous little country familiar in school-day histories.

SEEN AND HEARD

Such things about making a mistake is something about you to do it again.

Sympathy is great, unless it makes you want more of it.

Only one more pair of gloves and two umbrellas until spring.

Many Happy Returns

"Aren't you going to congratulate me, wife? Why, I was just released from the pen today after serving out a sentence of five years," said the convict, his long-suffering wife looked up wearily from her work. "Many happy returns," she said, "I wish you many happy returns."

Henry's Intentions

Charles Joe, on a visit to his brother's household, seemed particularly interested in Henry, the hopeful. "And what are you going to be when you grow up, Henry?" he asked, casually. "Well," returned Henry, thoughtfully, "after I have been a minister, I am going to be a judge to please mother, and a judge to please father. I am going to be a policeman."

Many Love Affairs

"Sister Amanda Ellen writes that niece Geraldine, who is coming to visit us next week, has had 15 love affairs," said Mrs. Hornbeak looking up from the letter from her city relative. "Well, I should wonder." Interestingly calculated honest Farmer Hornbeak: "What in time can she do with 15 imitation ivory toilet sets?"

Got His Answer

At breakfast in one of the hotels an exceedingly fidgety and irritable person within two minutes of giving his order began to squint and demand when he was going to get his food. "Waller," he demanded for about the fourth time, "where is my chop?" "It's on the grill, sir," the waiter responded. "Will you have it now, or wait until it's done?"

She Meant Well

He had gone head first into the wind shield when his car collided with a van and two of the crowd, followed by a score of others, were leading him to a nearby drug-store to have his face dressed. "Through the press behind him a woman called out, 'Glad to hear you're all right.' 'Glad to hear you're all right,' she said, earnestly tapping him on the shoulder, 'your hat's dented in.'"

Obedient Instructions

"Molly, did I not see you sitting on that young man's lap last night?" asked the mother. "Yes," replied Molly. "And it was very embarrassing. I wish you hadn't told me to." "Good heavens!" exclaimed the mother, "I never told you to do anything of the kind. 'You did, you did, mother,' insisted Molly. 'You told me that if I attempted to be sentimental I must sit on him.'"

A Thought

And yet I want him to care for me. While I live in this world where the shadows lie. When the lights lie down from the path I take. When strength is feeble and friends forsake. When love and music that once did bless. Have left me to silence and loneliness. And my life-long changes to sobbing prayers. Then my heart cries out for a God who cares. —Machonne Partridgeham.

The Happiest Heart

Who drives the horses of the sun. Shall find it but a day. Better the lowly deed worker of the day. And keep the humble way.

The rust will fade the sword of fame. The dust will hide the crown. Ay, none shall call so high his name. Time will not tear it down.

The happiest heart that ever beat. Was in some quiet breast. That found the common daylight sweet. And left to heaven the rest. —John Vance Cheney.

AD CLUB TO GREET STOCK PLAYERS

Members of the Lowell Advertising club are to organize a theatre party next Tuesday evening, and see "East is West" at the Lowell Opera House. The party will be in actuality a greeting to all Louisa's stock players. Who are to open a season next Monday at the Opera House and are to give Lowell theatre patrons the best in stock offerings. The Advertising club has reserved 125 seats for Tuesday night and is preparing a few novel features of entertainment that will make the affair well worth seeing, the members say.

LECTURE POSTPONED

As it was found at the very last moment that the moving picture machine at the Y.M.C.A. was not protected as the state law requires, the lecture by Capt. Edward C. Fox of the 26th division, at which it was planned to show pictures of the Yankee division, had to be postponed until next Thursday evening, January 25. Those in charge expressed their disappointment at having to postpone the lecture, but promised that everything will be ready and the lecture given at the next week.

Conditions could be worse. There are always more troubles we haven't than troubles we have.

MAN ABOUT TOWN

That the obstruction of street railway and other traffic will not be tolerated in this city was evidenced in the district court yesterday morning when Judge Earle imposed a substantial fine on a young man who blocked traffic in Stevens street last Saturday afternoon. This is the first case of this nature that has been brought to the attention of the local court for some time and should prove as a warning to automobilists that the rights of the public are to be respected. Deliberate obstruction of a street car is a punishable offense.

The car line turnouts have been shrouled out of the snow at short intervals to allow automobiles and street cars to pass the snow or to turn aside so as not to block traffic. Regardless of this fact, we were delayed more than five minutes this morning by milk slugs stopped in the car tracks while the driver was off delivering milk and in both instances the delays were within fifty feet of a turnout. This sort of delay is not fair either to the car company or to the public who must depend upon these cars to get to work on time.

The C.M.A.C., the largest and most influential social and fraternal organization of the French-speaking population of this city is soon to provide more spacious quarters for its members. In order to take care of the growth in the membership of the association, the officers some time ago considered a plan of disposing of the present quarters and securing a larger building in some other part of the city, but this was not deemed advisable and accordingly a building committee was appointed with Lawyer Arthur H. Bno, former secretary of the Memorial Auditorium commission as its chairman. The committee studied several projects and finally recommended the purchase of the tenement block adjoining the present building, which it is expected, will be remodeled in the spring and connected with the old club building. Architect Black, of Boston, who drew the plans for the Auditorium is now busy on plans for the remodeling of the newly purchased building and it is safe to assume that with such a man as Mr. Black, who by the way, also drafted the plans and supervised the erection of the Sun building, the C.M.A.C. will have quarters second to none in this part of the country, so far as a clubhouse is concerned. It is believed that with the improvements the association will increase its membership by several hundred.

I have had the pleasant experience of a formal introduction to Miss Mary Ann Dentler, the charming, leading lady of the new stock company, which is to open the Opera House next Monday. Miss Dentler will make her debut before the Lowell public in the famous role of "Ming Toy," a character which made the name of Fay Bainter the talk of the theatre world in the popular production "East is West." The new leading lady is pretty and vivacious and will, no doubt, make a decided hit with Lowell's lovers of the spoken drama. She has had a wide and varied experience on the stage and has enjoyed a very successful career before the footlights. Her leading man, Arthur de Lord played the original "Billy Benson" opposite Fay Bainter in the New York production and will play the same role with Miss Dentler in this city.

K. OF P. CARNIVAL IS BIG SUCCESS

The Casino was crowded again last evening with attractions of interest drawing many enthusiastic people to see and enjoy another excellent program of varied entertainment provided by Vaudeville Lodge No. 28, Knights of Pythias. All of the booths did a big business. The entertainment of the evening was under the direction of President Frank Whipple and proved a winner.

Miss Mary McQuade gave a series of exhibition dances. The Misses Avis Hollis and Dorothy Roulo also entertained with dances of various types, and Miss Ida Watson of North Billerica came in to take a prominent part in the splendid program.

Popular melodies were sung by Miss Sadie Sheehan and Miss Florence Hogue. An orchestra played for dancing later.

Tomorrow night the Buck on display at the Casino will be presented to the lucky coupon holder. All tickets should be collected by tomorrow night so the car can be presented as a grand finale to the show.

Miss L. Blanche Perrin has charge of the entire entertainment tonight, and there will be dancing throughout the evening.

GOODWILL INDUSTRIES DOING GOOD WORK

Excellent reports showing many accomplishments during the past year, have been issued by the Goodwill Industries, Inc., the official statements being formally presented at a meeting of the industries' executive committee, held at the Central M. E. church, yesterday.

Although the institution is but two years old, its work has steadily increased. During the past year, 35,472 hours of work have been done at the Goodwill house by 80 different people who were in dire need of employment. The work done by these people included repairing and renewing the contents of more than 4000 bags of clothing which the Goodwill people collected from house to house, and also on 148 pieces of furniture. The various articles collected represent the contributions of 2000 different Lowell homes.

Sales at low rates of this clothing to needy people brought in $11,957.42, making the industries nearly self-supporting, although contributions are still needed to keep the work up to a high standard. In two years' time, more than $16,000 has been paid out in wages.

The annual meeting and election of officers of the industries will be held at 8 o'clock, Monday evening, in the Central M. E. church. During the day preceding the meeting, there will be "open house" at the Goodwill institution. Guides will show all visitors about.

The Goodwill Industries is now planning as part of the program of the National Methodist Episcopal organization to establish a day nursery with medical attendance, a dispensary featuring orthopedic, dental and eye, ear and throat clinics and supervised recreation, as well as keeping up the present Goodwill Industries.

Berton Braley's Daily Poem MY STARS!

(An astronomer has come forth with the theory that stars are the result of mating between masculine and feminine elements in space.)

A comet whirled through the realms of space,
A shining wake behind him,
He traveled along at a dizzy space
With many a tie to bind him;
Till once, as the comet went whizzing by,
A gay little Pleiad lapped him,
She winked at him with a bold bright eye,
And gaily indeed she rumped him.

So the comet paused in his headlong flight
To flirt with the gleaming Pleiad,
He found her sparkling and blithe and bright,
And finally asked, would she add
Her starry charm to his speed and force
In an astronomical tether?
"And thus," he said, "we will rove a course
Through the furthestmost stars together."

The Pleiad nodded a shy assent,
So off on the trail they started,
And over the firmament they went
And never again were parted,
But little comets and Pleiads came
From this joyous amalgamation,
And thus the heavens began to flame
With a brand new constellation!

Reid Died in Arms of Wife

as Dorothy Davenport, and just after he had mumbled in semi-delirium, "God—please—"
He had been unconscious for many hours but in his last talk with his wife when his mind was clear, he seemed to be aware, relatives said, that death was almost upon him.
At that time, he said, "Tell them, mamma, I have won my fight—that I have come back."
He had affectionately called his wife "Mamma" since the birth of their son Billy, five years ago.
Representatives of all phases of motion picture work offered their sympathy to his widow, little Billy and the tiny daughter the Reids adopted some time ago. Tributes to the dead actor were many.

The son of Hal Reid, famous as a writer of melodrama, did not want to be an actor, it is said, but desired to be a motion picture director.

"I never wanted to be an actor," friends quoted him, "and I still don't want to be an actor. The promoters liked the shape of my nose or something and I was powerless to do what I wanted to do. But they're not going to get away with it forever."

Reid was a member of the Order of Elks, and it was announced the lodge would conduct public funeral services, Saturday afternoon.

The body will be cremated in accordance with Reid's wishes.

First Appearance at Four

Wallace Reid was born in St. Louis. In 1922, a son of Hal Reid, formerly a prominent writer of melodrama, he appeared on the stage when only four years old in the role of a little girl. When Wallace was 10 years old, he attended the public schools there until he entered the New Jersey Military Academy at Freeport. In 1916, the Reid family moved again, this time to the Big Basin region in Wyoming. Here Wallace gained broad experience in western life. He was a ranch worker, ran a small hotel and also worked on the government survey of the Shoshone Dam. Shortly after this brief engineering experience, he returned alone to New York and secured a job as a reporter on the old New York Star.

However, he soon tired of this and entered vaudeville. While working in this he entered the motion picture industry but soon abandoned it for an editorial position on the magazine, "Motor Life."

While in this position, he secured the motion picture rights to "The Confession" and sold it outright to a producing company with the proviso that both he and his father were to appear in it.

This definitely decided his career. After finishing this contract, Reid went west, where he started out as an all-round man with one of the smaller moving picture companies. He worked his way up, becoming one of the most prominent actors of the screen.

Reid married Dorothy Davenport, a moving picture actress. They had one child and adopted another. He was especially noted for his varied accomplishments. He not only wrote, acted in and directed plays, but was an enthusiastic motorist, played golf, tennis and was interested in all out-door sports. Reid's greatest hobby was music. It is said there was not a musical instrument, from a Chinese fiddle to a pipe organ, that he could not play.

Visiting cards are supposed to have originated with glazed earthenware tablets, depicting the owner and left by him on leaving temples.

An Expert on Dress Says Men's Clothes Are Ugly

MISS SOPHIE RAFELMAN

BY EDWARD THIERRY,
N.E.A. Service Staff Writer.
NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—Lend an ear, men. Herewith woman hits back at you. We've been criticizing their clothes—short skirts, long skirts, low necks, ear bangles, folderols and whatnot—and now they're criticizing ours.

"What's wrong with men's clothes?"

She Ought to Know What's Wrong

Miss Sophie Rafelman—whose business it is to know about clothes, since, as she told Alfred Funt, buyer for 150 department stores, she buys $10,000,000 worth of dresses a year—says this is the answer:

"Two things are wrong. First, men's clothes are ugly. Second, they are too standardized."

A harsh word, ugly. But ugly they are, says Miss Rafelman, when they are compared with the beauty of women's garments.

"Men are as vain as women about their clothes," she says. "But they haven't the nerve to remedy their ugliness or to break away from conventional standards. Or too lazy, perhaps."

Women Sorry for Men

"Too much monotony—coat, trousers, waistcoat, the same year after

TO PROTEST SUPPLY OF CRUDE RUBBER

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—Harvey S. Firestone here in an attempt to interest congress in measures to enlarge and protect the American supply of crude rubber by efforts "to further cement our close relations with the South American republics" and through development in the Philippines, said today he would not attend a meeting at New York tonight between a delegation representing the British rubber industry and members of the Rubber Association of America. In giving his reason, he said:

"The restriction of rubber production in British colonies to have legislation. This matter has passed out of the hands of the producers and consumers."

Mr. Firestone declared that 85 per cent. of the world's crude rubber production was controlled by British capital, while 70 per cent. of it was consumed in the United States. The British, through legislation he said, have restricted 1923 crude rubber production in the colonies to 60 per cent. of the 1922 production, indicating a world output this year of 201,000 tons, while the estimated rubber consumption of the world in 1923 has been valued at 400,000 tons.

"I can see no object in the conference in New York between American crude rubber producers and British crude rubber producers," he continued, "because it is wholly to the interest of the British producers to have the restrictive laws continued. I believe the rubber and automobile manufacturers of this country (as both industries are greatly concerned in keeping highway transportation costs to a minimum) should meet and co-operate with British manufacturers in protesting against these restrictions and bringing about the removal of this unjust burden."

BRIEF BUT IMPORTANT WIRE DESPATCHES

BOSTON, Jan. 18.—Jeremiah B. Crowley, a special delivery messenger in the Haverhill postoffice, was arraigned before federal commissioner today charged with thefts over a period of five months. Specifically the thefts alleged amount to $255. He waived examination and was held in $1000 bonds.

NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—E. C. Yellowley, acting prohibition director for New York state, today admitted that undoubtedly "some" liquor was held outside the three-mile limit on the seas as confirmed yesterday by a party of newspapermen who visited the rim fleet in a tug. He asserted, however, that the amount was "greatly exaggerated."

NORTH SYDNEY, N. S. W., Jan. 18.—The Belgian steamer Londoner ran aground at the entrance to Sydney harbor early today in a dense fog. Her condition is believed to be not serious and it is expected she will be floated at high tide. Several tug-boats were sent to her aid.

King Maker Found Colonel's Job Too Noisy, So He's Private Now

COLONEL THOMAS EDWARD LAWRENCE AS PRIVATE A. C. ROSS (RIGHT).

BY MILTON BRONKHOR,
N.E.A. Service Staff Correspondent.

LONDON, Jan. 19.—Imagine a colonel of the army, distinguished military expert, scholar and archaeologist, and friend and adviser of a king, an assumed name and enlisting in the army as a private—to keep peace and quiet!

Colonel Thomas Edward Lawrence, D. S. O., Prince of Mecca, did that. Officially he is now A. C. Ross, first-class craftsman of the Royal Air Force.

Even the scholarly solitude of Oxford, where he retired after his service as an adviser on Arabian affairs to the British foreign office, following his work at the Versailles peace conference, was not enough for Colonel Lawrence.

Modest to a fault, Lawrence has been turned by the machinery of publicity into one of the best known and most romantic figures in British life. Beams of articles have been printed about him, and Augustus John, famous painter, made his face familiar and created an art sensation by exhibiting several portraits of Lawrence in Arabian costume.

Lawrence, as an Oxford scholar before the war, had made Arabic his specialty and had taken part in several exploration tours of Arabia, making friends with great chieftains who ordinarily were suspicious of Christians. When the war began, Lawrence, then only 25, went to Arabia as a lieutenant in the British army and rose steadily until he was a colonel.

He organized the Arabians against the Turkish-German forces threatening the Suez canal and in 1917 helped revive the ancient Arab Kingdom of the Hedjaz. He became the intimate friend of the king of the Hedjaz, who conferred upon him the title of Prince of Mecca, being the only Christian who ever was so honored. He was decorated by England and France and attended the peace conference with Prince Feisal of the Hedjaz.

After all that, what do you think he wanted quiet for?

The answer is: To write a book!

Coal Famine Continues at Jonesport, Me.

BOSTON, Jan. 18.—Jonesport, Me., waiting a month for the schooner Moonlight to deliver her cargo of 300 tons of coal to break a famine there, must wait longer. The coast guard cutter Ossipee which took the Moonlight and three other coal-laden schooners bound for Maine ports in tow for their destinations several days ago, reported by radio today that the Moonlight broke adrift during the night and anchored off Plymouth. The Ossipee could not leave the other three vessels, with which she was steaming across the Gulf of Maine today.

Find Seven Stowaways on Steamer

BOSTON, Jan. 18.—Officials searching the steamer Savona, which arrived from Trieste, yesterday for contraband liquor, found seven stowaways in her afterpeak today. The men were brought before immigration authorities and ordered deported. Another stowaway on the vessel was caught yesterday.

Escaping Prisoner Trapped in Coal Chute

BOSTON, Jan. 18.—The police will need a new kind of a cell door if they wish to keep Edward Dubois a prisoner. He succeeded today in squeezing through a hole in the door used to pass in food and water. He got his weight of 125 pounds through the small space of six and one quarter inches by 13 inches. But he was caught in a coal chute from which he was trying to remove a manhole on the sidewalk and thus escape. He was arraigned on a charge of stealing an automobile.

DEBT NEGOTIATIONS TO BE CONTINUED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—Negotiations between the American and British governments looking to the repudiation of Great Britain's war debt to the United States, will be carried forward through the British embassy here after the return of the British debt commission to London at the end of the week.

This announcement was made at the conclusion today of the joint sessions of the British and American commissions which have been in progress here for 10 days.

An official spokesman for the American group declared there was nothing that should stand in the way of a complete understanding between the two governments and that there was no reason to hope that an agreement in principle could be reached in time for submission to congress at the present session.

Stanley Baldwin, the chancellor, and Montagu Norman, governor of the Bank of England, the other member of the British mission, expect to arrive in London a week from tomorrow and to make their report to the cabinet on the following day.

The results of the London conference will be cabled to Sir Auckland Geddes, the British ambassador here, and the negotiations with the American commission will be resumed immediately by him.

Details of the suggestions on terms of settlement which have been made by the commissions still were withheld.

TO EXTEND HOUSING AND RENT LAWS

BOSTON, Jan. 18.—Extension from July 1, 1923 to May 1, 1924, of the emergency housing and rent laws was urged today by Chairman Hultman of the commission on the necessities of life before a legislative committee. He deemed their continuance advisable because building costs are about 20 per cent. above the 1914 level. Until building costs liquidate, rents will not be lowered, he believes. Many families are paying rents greater than their incomes warrant, he added.

The courts should have the right to establish reasonable rents for dwellings on a basis of a fair return on the investment, in the opinion of Mr. Hultman.

EXECUTION OF WOMEN IN IRELAND IMMINENT

NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—Execution of women prisoners held by the Irish Free State government is imminent and immediate intervention is necessary to save them, said a radio message received today by Mrs. Gertrude Corless, active in Irish republican circles here, from Madame Despard, sister of Lord French.

NO EVIDENCE OF K. K. K. ACTIVITIES

LAWRENCE, Jan. 18.—Peter Carr, commissioner of public safety, issued a statement today in which he declared that the local police have no evidence in their possession of K. K. K. activities in Lawrence and asking people not to pay attention to unfounded rumors. He stated that it is the duty of every one hearing of any such activities to report the matter to the police.

HEAVY FIGHTING IN COUNTY CORK

DUBLIN, Jan. 18.—Heavy fighting occurred yesterday in the Dromina district of County Cork. It was learned today. A large force of national troops from Charleville and Buttevant came into contact with a column of irregulars 300 strong.

There was much machine gun and rifle firing, but the national casualties consisted of only one slightly wounded. Four irregulars were captured.

Jack Daw on Icicle Isle. Chapter 9

Then suddenly, out of the whiteness of everything around him, Jack heard several little "Yoo-hoo" calls. Again he looked around, but still couldn't see any of the snowmen. Then Flip started to bark. "Go get them," shouted Jack, to his dog. And Flip jumped around in circles over the snow.

This made the snowmen stand up where Jack could see them over the little banks of white snow flakes. Then Jack discovered that when the snowmen sat down they were the same color as the snow itself and therefore he couldn't tell the snowmen from the great piles of snow.

Jack thought this a very good joke on him and he joined the snowmen in laughter. Then, suddenly, all of the snowmen shouted loudly and started to run. "Why, what's the matter?" asked Jack. And a little snowman, who had fallen down, said: "Our enemy, the sun, is out." (Continued.)

Adventures of The Twins

BUSTER GOES TO SLEEP

"GIMME TEN CENTS AND I'LL TELL YOU," SAID BUSTER

Nancy and Nick went with Dusty Cont, the dwarf, to hunt for Buster Cinnamon Bear, the little bear boy who loved honey so.

"They found Buster easily because of his large footprints in the soft snow. They led up a steep mountain side, straight for some rocky where Buster loved to loaf among the trees.

Buster was sitting on the cold ground looking lonesome and forlorn, his funny feet with their long toes and puffy leather soles sticking straight out in front of him. His sharp little peering eyes were looking miles away at nothing.

"Gimme ten cents and I'll tell you," said "A penny wouldn't buy the wooden box off a honeycomb nowadays."

"All right," smiled Dusty Cont. "I'll give you something better if you'll tell us what you were thinking about."

"I was wondering," said Buster promptly, "what had become of the picnic."

"Picnic? Goodness gracious! Why?"

"Oh, because! There were always a lot of scraps left—bits of cake and pieces of sandwiches and bread and jelly—and when I think of the nice juicy scraps of ham, my yum! I nearly cry, so I do. Do you know what has become of the picnic?"

"Yes," told him, Buster, "said Nancy. 'Jack Frost has chased them away. Snow and plenty don't go together. You'll have to wait until next summer and then the picnic will come again.'"

"Next summer?" cried Buster jumping to his feet and dancing around. "Why, I'll be starved by that time. Why, there's not even any honey in the trees any more. I can't find a bit. What'll I do?"

"Listen, Buster," said Dusty Cont, opening up a little powder. "If you sniff up a little of this magic stuff, you'll go to sleep and have the loveliest dream all winter long."

"Hout picnic and ham and honey?"

"Yes, sir!"

"All right," said Buster willingly. "Give me some right now."

WORLD'S GREATEST SELF-MADE BOY

At the age of eight, Jackie Coogan, boy film star, is reported to have turned down a contract which would assure him $1,500,000 a year for several years. The reason: Someone else has offered him more! Young Coogan today is worth nearly $2,000,000 and has an oil well that nets him nearly $1000 a day. Still he's a regular boy, say his parents.

THIRD BASE IS HARDEST POSITION TO FILL

According to the official averages of the American league, third base was the hardest regular position to fill during the 1922 season. For no less than 24 players were tried at the hot corner by the eight clubs in the circuit.

Of this number, Boston ranked high, using five men at the post, while the Yankees and Washington were knocked for second place, each employing four players at the bag while the race was in progress. Then came St. Louis with three, followed by Detroit, Cleveland, Chicago, and the Athletics with two apiece.

Of the two dozen third sackers, but three of them played in 100 or more games. Jimmy Dykes of the Macs took toppling the field with 141 to his credit. Joe Judge, who was with both Boston and New York, was in 123 frays, and Jimmy Jones, Detroit, 119.

At second base a marked contrast was displayed—but 13 men totalling at the Keystone sack during the campaign. And of these, as many as eight were in 120 games or over. In fact, five of the group got into 154 frays. This quintet included Collins, Chicago; Ward, New York; McManus, Washington; Pratt, Boston; and Harris, Cleveland.

Obviously these five clubs didn't make a change at the cushion all season. Of the others, Detroit used two men, and Cleveland and the Athletics three each.

STAR PLAYER TO REPORT EARLY

No ball player in either major league takes better care of himself than Stanley Harris, star second sacker of the Washington team.

Harris, always fit, never carries an ounce of superfluous flesh, and right now is easily the best second baseman in the American league. Collins expected. He is the logical successor of the White Sox star.

Next to baseball, Harris likes big golf. During the playing season he cuts down the golf game, but in the winter gets in for it strong.

Inside of a week Harris will be at the training camp of the Nationals at

MISS JAECKL SCORNFUL OF WINTER COLD

Dorothy Jaekel, New York society girl, a winter guest at St. Moritz, sees nothing to be afraid of in Switzerland's snow and ice.

She is a devotee of cold-weather sport.

Miss Jaekel's cap matches her scarf of brilliant plaid wool, which almost conceals the blanket coat underneath. Her gray angora mittens and wool stockings are smart as well as warm.

Tampa, Fla., despite the fact it will be many weeks before the other players report.

Harris likes golf and Tampa, and spends the greater part of his winter there. He will be fit when the Nationals arrive.

MANY STARS DEVELOPED BY CONNIE MACK

(By NEA Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 15.—Connie Mack might literally be called the baseball incubator of the American league.

Mack is now in the thick of the fight to give Philadelphia another pennant winner. He seems to be on the way. Mack, aside from developing recruits into stars for his own team, has kept a number of other clubs well supplied with stars. Nearly every club in the American league has a former Mack player on its payroll. In every case, Mack had a definite reason for the disposal of the different players.

Here is a bunch of players who formerly starred for Mack, now members of various American league clubs. This aggregation would be able to hold its own in the American league race:

First base—Melvin, Cleveland.
Second base—Collins, Chicago.
Third base—Baker, New York.
Shortstop—Puzos, New York.
Outfield—Stank, Chicago.
Outfield—Witt, New York.
Outfield—Jannson, Cleveland.
Catcher—Schang, New York.
Catcher—Pichich, Washington.
Catcher—Merritt, Cleveland.
Pitcher—Hush, New York.
Pitcher—Covaleski, Cleveland.
Pitcher—Pennock, Boston.
Pitcher—Moore, Detroit.

ROMANCE

Albert Juler, 60, Iowa farmer, wooed by mail Mrs. Alice Crawford Benson, Greenville (S. C.) widow. In a prairie schooner he traveled 46 days to cover the 1500 miles to her home. Then—wedding bells.

The King of England theoretically possesses the power of vetoing laws he does not like, but this right has not been exercised since 1707.

LOWELL'S FIRE ALARM SYSTEM

Facts Concerning Antiquated
System Discussed at Meeting Held Yesterday

Movement on Foot for New System—Present System
Out of Date

Facts concerning Lowell's antiquated fire alarm system, some of them already known and some of them new, were presented yesterday afternoon by fire department men, insurance underwriters and alarm signal system representatives at a conference of the mayor and city council held in the former's reception room. The National Board of Fire Underwriters was represented by John T. Caldwell and Frank M. Tiffany was the representative of the Gannett Co., manufacturers of such systems.

The idea of the conference was to acquaint the members of this year's government with the condition of the present alarm system, its unsatisfactory and show why the city needs a modern manual system, with all instruments and apparatus attached to it installed in a separate, fireproof building.

Except in relation to minor details of the present system, no comment was made that was not general knowledge beforehand. When Mr. Caldwell and Mr. Tiffany forgot to say about it was graphically supplied by Chief Edward F. Saunders and Capt. Thomas F. Conway. The entire conference was in the nature of a general discussion of the old and new systems, what other cities are doing along this line, the possibility of purchasing a new system to continue its life "just a little longer," the cost and time required for installing a new system, a suitable location for a headquarters house, overhead and underground wires, building hazards, location and types of signal boxes, and, in fact, every detail that might possibly come up for debate at such a meeting. Including, also, one very important question, whether Lowell's insurance rating would be bettered if a new system is purchased and installed.

The approximate cost of a new system, as has been spoken of several times in the recent past, is $200,000, depending somewhat on the type and size of headquarters building desired and its location, which would affect the amount of new underground work required. In relation to a headquarters house, Chief Saunders suggested a site in French street, near the new high school building, to be of sufficient size to accommodate the instrument apparatus as well as the instruction boards of a new system. Councilor Daniel Cosgrove advanced his proposition to acquire the Washington Tavern site and erect there fire and police headquarters combined.

The conference resulted in no action on the part of the government, but it may have paved the way for constructive steps in the near future. It cannot be said that the council, or the mayor, is rushing headlong into the matter. They are giving it plenty of thought and are extremely cautious, for it means considerable expense, but there seemed to be an evident feeling that something needs to be done and without very much delay. The feeling also was evident that the cost entailed would not call forth any criticism from the tax-paying public.

Perhaps no stronger commendation of the present system is possible than was uttered by Capt. Conway, when he said:

"The present system is old, out of date, unreliable, and in many ways 'rotten.' It is a system that might fit a city of 20,000 inhabitants, no more. Lowell outgrew it years ago and how it still is operating at all, even in a hit and miss manner, is a mystery. What remains of it is will, in fact, and we never know what minute will sound its death-knell. I do not see how it possibly can hold out much longer."

The installation of a modern system would not place Lowell in Class B rating, but would go a long way toward it, for it would wipe out 212 points in a classification schedule that the city now is penalized for in the present system. Complete modernization of the department on top of a new system, would carry the city into a higher class.

CANADIAN REGULATIONS

Goods Shipped to Canada
Must Have Values Written
on Packages

The postal administration of Canada has advised the Lowell postoffice, via Washington headquarters, that according to the customs regulations of that country no goods exported to Canada from the United States, whether such goods are sent by mail or otherwise, can be entered through the Canadian customs without certified invoices furnished by the exporter to the Canadian exporter or his agent.

Such certified invoices must be furnished in triplicate, two copies being required for customs entry and the third copy for the use of the importer. The proper commercial designation of the goods shipped must be set forth in all invoices.

It is required that invoices from exporters to importers in Canada shall show the marks and numbers on the packages in such a manner as to indicate truly the quantities and values of the articles comprised in each exportation package, the packages to be legibly marked and numbered on the outside with the name of the exporter, and in a separate column the fair market value of each article as sold for home consumption in the country of export.

The notices of the Canadian customs regulations, to be enforced from now on, were received by Postmaster DeWitt at the local office.

Lowell shippers of goods to Canadian points, whether sending materials by parcel post or by rail deliveries or otherwise across the Canadian border, will have to watch their shipping departments carefully from now on, for goods not properly marked and valued are liable to immediate seizure and holding, and if the required data is not furnished, the goods may be confiscated and sold.

Adoption of Bill Representing Petition of Lowell Man Urged in Committee

(Special to The Sun)
STATE HOUSE, Boston, Jan. 19.—Declaring that the $10 a week which workers have exempted from attachment is ridiculously small in view of the present high cost of living, Rep. John T. Farrell of Fall River, appeared before the legislative committee on joint judiciary and urged the adoption of a bill increasing the amount to $20.

The bill is the petition of John P. Reagan of the Lowell Central Labor union and was also supported by Rep. Edward F. Harrington, Robert L. Manley, Thomas C. Crowther and Ernest A. Laroque.

John L. Campos of Lowell also favored the bill.

"Chapter two hundred and forty-six of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out section twenty-eight and inserting in place thereof the following:

"Section 28. If wages for personal labor and services of a defendant are attached for a debt or claim an amount not exceeding twenty dollars shall be reserved in the hands of the trustee and shall be exempt from such attachment."

"I believe the present law is unjust to an employee's family and creates considerable hardship if his wages are attached," declared Representative Farrell.

The law was placed on the statute books seventy-five years ago, fixing the amount to be exempted at $10. If $10 was a just exemption seventy-five years ago, I believe that $20 is fair now.

"A similar bill was reported by the committee on judiciary last year which demonstrates that the members of that committee believe it to be a just proposition."

There was no opposition. HOTT.

The last of the series of three Burton Holmes (travelogue) lectures in the Mason Greeley Parker course was given at the Memorial Auditorium last night before a large audience. "Great Sights East of Suez" was the topic and the intensely interesting trip by boat, railway and overland vehicle comprised a journey filled with wonderful scenes in India, Siam, Ceylon and the territory adjacent to the Suez canal.

From Port Said the journey led through the Suez canal, across the Red and Arabian seas to Bombay. Colorful scenes in India included the marvelous gardens and architectural triumphs of the Taj Mahal, the glories of the Ganges, Hindu worshippers and vivid glimpses of strange ceremonies on the bustling ghats of Benares.

The journey then led southward to Ceylon, traveled along the palm-fringed shore and then turned inland toward the beautiful extensive rice fields and the paddy in the hills. Although of a glossy black complexion, Ceylon folk have regular Caucasian features. Cruising through the Malacca strait had Penang as an objective, where some time was spent with the Sultan of Perak in his capital of Ipoh, Kelantan. The way was then with the Sultan of Bonahara, after which there was travel by motor in the Malay peninsula.

The wonders of Siam were shown by stereoscopic slides and motion pictures and the audience was treated to an extraordinary exhibition of the royal ballet, the classic dancers of the king. Going up-country by rail there were glimpses of rural Siam, American missions, the majestic Mekong river, the teak forests where teak logging is carried on extensively with royal elephants employed as burden bearers.

The next course entertainment comes Monday evening, January 22, when Isaac F. Marcossian speaks on "The Changing East."

MANY MEN TO BE DROPPED FROM STREET DEPARTMENT PAYROLL

Supt. Doherty Finds Employment of Certain Men is Illegal—Treasurer's Office Busy Paying Off Men Whose Names Appear on $23,500 Payroll

Representatives of the city treasurer's office began this noon to pay off the $23,500 temporary street department laborers on the record-breaking $23,500 payroll submitted for work performed last week. The work of paying-off will consume several hours.

As an outcome of the conference held yesterday between James E. O'Neil, civil service labor representative and department heads at city hall, during which many phases of hiring labor by the city under civil service regulations were discussed, City Treasurer Fred H. Bourke, who is the city official penalized if persons illegally employed are paid for services rendered, did not wish to take the responsibility of paying the large amount of the payroll without receiving the personal sanction of Commissioner James Dunn. He was in communication with this official by telephone this morning and was told to pay the amount in full.

Under the present arrangement it devolves upon the treasurer to ascertain whether payrolls contain names of men who have been illegally employed in the past and their pay held up, so as to strike them from any subsequent payrolls received, but in the present case, with more than 300 names submitted, the work involved would represent many hours of research and the treasurer wished to obviate it if possible. With the sanction of the state commissioner, however, the roll was authorized paid in full.

In the matter of illegal employment, Supt. Harry Doherty gave orders today that 50-odd men now employed in his department, and in addition many other temporary men, will sever connections with the street department, however, as it has been found their employment is illegal.

DECLARES TRANSPORTATION IN N. E. FACES COMPLETE BREAKDOWN

Can Be Avoided Only if Governors of New York, Connecticut, Massachusetts and Rhode Island Act Immediately to End Shopmen's Strike Says Union Official

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—A complete breakdown of traffic on the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad can be avoided only if the governors of New York, Connecticut, Rhode Island and Massachusetts take immediate action to end the shopmen's strike, which has been in effect since July 1, William H. Johnston, president of the International Association of Machinists, today declared in identical telegrams sent to the governors of the four states.

"I urge you," he said, "to order an immediate investigation of traffic conditions and to take whatever action is necessary to remedy an intolerable situation."

Public Near Open Rebellion
"Transportation in New England now faces a complete breakdown. Through trains from Boston to New York now average from one to five hours late. Commuters in the New York and Boston districts are habitually delayed from 15 minutes to over an hour on short suburban runs. The traveling public is in a state of all but open rebellion against these conditions."

Johnston declared the situation resulted from failure to settle the shopmen's strike and asserted that the road would be on its feet within a month if a settlement were effected.

The New Haven officials, Johnston declared, admitted they could not make adequate equipment repairs with strike breakers and said the shopmen had been unwilling to negotiate a settlement. "This assertion," he said, "was contrary to fact."

"The shopmen," he continued, "have been ready to meet the management at any time during the past six months. Settlements already made on over 100 other roads have resulted in a rapid return of operating efficiency."

In spite of the fact that the ash and waste collection division has not been a part of the health department for more than a year, this department in its city hall office and at the yard in Broadway daily is being besieged with telephone calls concerning the removal of ashes.

Do not call either of the two health department numbers, 3380 or 540, for officials there know nothing of the workings of the ash and waste division.

Mine Managers and Directors Arrested—Miners Threatened to Quit

Additional German Resistance to French Efforts to Ship Coal Develop

Orders for Strike of All Freight Railway Men in Ruhr Received From Berlin

French Carry Out Plan to Take Over Customs Districts of Rhineland

(By the Associated Press)
French threats to enforce reparations payments by confiscations were made good today by the seizure of several state mines in the Ruhr valley and various Reichsbank branches.

Mine managers and directors were arrested in some cases. Miners in some of the seized pits threatened to quit if the French entered. It was reported.

Additional German resistance to French efforts to ship coal developed in the refusal of the Essen district railway administration to dispatch coal trains.

Orders for a strike of all the freight railway men in the Ruhr were received from Berlin and a general strike of these employees was expected before night.

Reichsbank branches in various parts of the Ruhr and the Rhineland were seized by the French, who claim the Germans were attempting to remove their funds to unoccupied Germany.

The French carried out their announced intention to take over the customs districts of the Rhineland. They took possession of the customs and coal tax funds. The state forests also were seized.

Reports of possible mediation between the allies and Germany by the League of Nations were discounted in Paris, where it is said the French feel they cannot consent to such a step until the results of the occupation become apparent.

The confiscation of the bank's funds by the French was carried out after the branch had attempted to close the German possession of the interior of Germany, according to the French officials. At 10 o'clock the French entered, took the entire treasury of the bank into their possession and placed soldiers on guard over the premises.

A similar attempt to remove the Dortmund branch of the Reichsbank was foiled by the occupying troops.

BUILDING INSPECTORS AT EDSON SCHOOL

As the result of recent agitation concerning the structural condition of the Edson grammar school, venerable building of 23 years' standing, Francis A. Connor, superintendent of public buildings, and Harold McCann, state inspector as to egress and fire hazards, have just completed a thorough investigation of the school and are at work on written reports to be submitted in the near future.

Supt. Connor said today he will make his report based on conditions exactly as he found them, but in the meantime, he asks for indulgence on the part of the general public and to refrain from passing judgment on the condition of the building, so as to preclude the possibility of unnecessarily alarming the residents of the school district in question.

Supt. Connor made minute measurements of the building during his inspection and while he does not wish to divulge the possible contents of his report at this time, he seeks to cause for apprehension on the part of any parents who have children enrolled at the Edson school.

WITNESS TELLS OF THREAT MADE TO CLEAN OUT DANIEL FAMILY

Relative of Watt Daniel, Who With T. F. Richard Was Kidnapped and Murdered, Testifies at Bastrop Hearing Today—Actual Perpetrators of "Morehouse Atrocities" to Be Named

McDonald said Jones did not know he was related to the Daniel family and that after he became aware of it he asked him to forget it.

Jones said "We are going to clean out the whole damned Daniel family before this thing is settled." McDonald testified, "He did not seem to realize that I was related to the Daniel family. I called his hand and he told me I needn't get so mad about it. I told him Dr. McKinnis was never shot."

"Do you know anything about the kidnapping?"

"Yes sir, I knew it an hour before it happened. You see I was in Bastrop at the time. You could hear all about it, except they didn't figure out the right names. I happened to be in the right place at the right time. I got to talking in the butcher shop about the kidnapping and he told me they should have killed them the night they caught argument of the open hearing."

"Doctor, I Want Teeth I Can Eat With"

A man came into this office some time ago and made the above statement. He said he had two sets of teeth and could not eat with either of them. He made him a set and he came in the office later and said they were the only ones he could keep in his mouth while eating. In fact he could chew peanuts and eat apples without the least trouble.

The reason for this is my particular method of taking impressions, study of the jaw and relation of the jaws, and correct articulation of the teeth.

Now, I can make you a set of teeth just as good as gold. If your plate drops or rocks come in, for I make a specialty of difficult cases and will examine your mouth and give you advice free of charge.

The price for sets of teeth is $3 up. Gold crowns $5. Fillings 50c up. Teeth extracted painlessly free, when plates are ordered.

Open Monday, Tuesday, Friday and Saturday evenings.

FUNERALS

DEATHS—After impressive services at St. John's church, North Chelmsford, the remains of the late James Leahy, one of the oldest and best known residents of the town, were laid to rest in the Catholic cemetery this morning with a large attendance of friends and relatives present. The services at the church were attended by Lowell people as well as representatives of the older families of the parish, business and professional men and life-long friends. The funeral cortege left the home of deceased at 8:45 and proceeded to St. John's church where mass was sung by the pastor, Rev. Francis Keeney, assisted by Rev. John Linnahan, St. Peter's church as sub-deacon. The choir, under the direction of Mr. Raymond Kelly, rendered the impressive Gregorian mass, the solos of the mass being sustained by Miss Frances Tighe and Mr. James E. Donnelly of St. Peter's church choir. At the offertory, Logue's "Pie Jesu" was sung by Miss Tighe. At the close of the mass the choir sang the "Do Profundis," there was a profusion of beautiful floral tributes and of splendid bouquets. The sisters at the house and church were John V. Donoghue, William B. Cowley and William E. Leahy, Jr., and the bearers were Peter Cummings, John Donohoe, Fred Kline, Mark McGrath, William H. Quigley and James P. Dunnigan. The committal services were conducted in St. Bridget's chapel by Rev. John Linnahan and the body was placed in the reading vault in St. Patrick's cemetery. League May Discuss Ruhr

Two intervention by Mr. Hennessey is termed in French circles as premature at least. The French government, it is said, could not consent to League consideration of the Ruhr occupation before it is possible to determine what the results of the occupation are likely to be.

The obstinately attitude of Germany, it is held, makes it impossible for France to entertain any suggestion of mediation by the council of the league or any other authority. It is also pointed out that action by the council would be tantamount to action by the allies themselves, since the allies are instructed as to the policy of their governments, and, under the unanimity rule, no proposition can be put through against the will of any one of them.

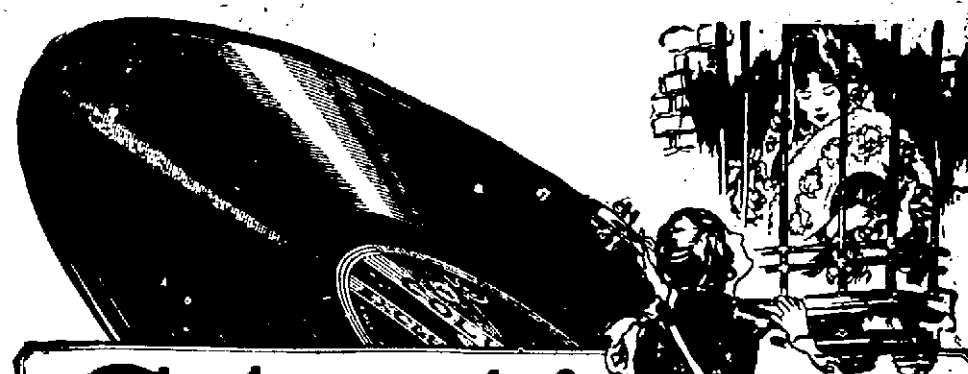

The assent of Germany to such mediation, which is a prerequisite in French opinion, also is problematical, as there has been considerable hostility to the league council in Berlin since the settlement of the upper Silesian controversy by which a larger section of territory was given to Poland.

CARD OF THANKS
We, the undersigned, wish to express our sincere thanks and heartfelt gratitude to those who by their acts of kindness, expressions of sympathy and offerings of floral tributes and splendid bouquets served to lighten the burden of our grief on the death of our devoted and affectionate mother and grandmother, Mrs. Bridget (Holland) Boyle. The kindness of each and every one we will ever cherish in loving remembrance.

WILLIAM BOYLE,
RENA BOYLE,

TO BURN ROUND ROBIN

Move to Destroy Document

Denouncing War Record of Sen. La Follette

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 19.—(By the Associated Press) Public burning of the "round robin" signed during the war by many University of Wisconsin professors denouncing the war record of United States Senator Robert M. La Follette, is ordered by a resolution introduced into the senate of Wisconsin legislature today by Henry A. Huber, administration leader. This resolution endorsed by Governor J. J. Blaine, and backed by the La Follette forces in control of the legislature directs the librarian of the state historical society to turn over the document containing the signatures of the university professors to the superintendent of public property who is ordered to destroy it.

A public demonstration is planned by the La Follette backers, headed by the La Follette backers if the resolution is adopted. Describing the document on file at the state library, the resolution says it contains "libelous aspersions on the record and character of Robert M. La Follette, Wisconsin's most distinguished citizen," and that many members of the university faculty were induced to sign it under duress and intimidation and that they now desire the wrong done offset from the house records.

Next Sunday the local members of the New England conference board of the United Textile Workers of America will attend the meeting of the organization, which will be held in Lawrence.

It is expected that Vice President J. A. Starr of the international organization will be present and he and John H. Hanes of this city will make a detailed report of the doings of the executive board of the U.T.W. of A. at its recent held in Fall River in connection with the proposed demand of a 29 per cent increase in wages.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE MINISTRY-AT-LARGE

At the 43rd annual meeting of the Ministry-at-Large held at the Free church in Middlesex street last night, the report of the minister was read and accepted, and officers for the coming year were elected.

The officers for the coming year are as follows: President, Dudley L. Page; vice-presidents, Mrs. Emma Jefferson and E. A. Olney; treasurer, J. Harry Burdman; secretary, Henry H. Harris; directors, Mrs. M. R. Jefferson, Harvey B. Greene, Mrs. T. E. Parker, Herbert D. Burdick, A. Leon Hurd, C. H. Johnson, Mrs. C. Johnson, Rev. A. McGilford, Rev. E. Thumme; directors from the churches, St. John's episcopal, Mrs. O. O. Greenwood; Grace universalist, Rev. E. C. Downey; All Souls, Miss Harriet Coburn; Central St. B., Rev. L. C. Hockes; First Presbyterian, Miss Emily Skilton; First Universalist, Rev. C. B. Fisher; St. Anne's, Rev. Arthur Granville; Page Street Baptist, Rev. J. C. Hayes; Pawtucket Congregational, Mrs. W. T. S. Bartlett; First Congregational, Mrs. C. T. Upson; Centralville M. E., Arthur L. Thayer; Highland Congregational, Rev. Richard Peters.

The report of the minister, Rev. Geo. C. Wright, was as follows:

Thirty-six years in one pulpit is a long period of service, and in a city like Lowell, gives unmatched opportunity for observing changes that inevitably come with each generation. We are now in the midst of one of those periods of change that will make the life of the community in the next couple of decades very different from what it has been in any phase of its past history. The textile corporations are facing southward toward more attractive cotton, coal and labor conditions. Their changes of location and management are to bring about the transformation of a large-scale industrial and social center of neighboring towns and farms. The completion and use of the Memorial Auditorium is symbolic.

Another change of significance is the passing of large portions of real estate into the hands of a single nationality, whose business ventures are commonly associated with retail rather than large enterprises.

The cost of living during 1922, has remained high and also wages for labor, but there are influences that favor the workers whom this Free church of the Ministry-at-Large serves. These are improved business, strike settlements, more employment, growing demand for efficient workers, increased savings and thrift accounts and also the fact that there are more home-owners. The banks readily furnish capital to high-grade business managers and to obtain a store here, even at high rental, is difficult. The city's educational advantages are unexcelled; the churches are earnestly devoted to social activities and religious enlightenment; there is ample provision for care of the sick and relief of poverty.

The definite aim and purpose of this Free church of the Ministry-at-Large is to help its adherents to right understanding of life; to strengthen individual purpose rather than rely on church traditions.

Many regard this Free church as their place of worship though they have become widely scattered through the years of my pastorate, and by force of circumstances. Their appearance at our regular Sunday service is a pleasure and a gratification. Through the efforts of some of the groups of friends who meet with us and contribute to our support, the parlor and lower assembly room have been renovated. The building is old, and repairs are much needed.

Our poor's purse is open to the calls of sickness and distress, regardless of church affiliations. During 1922, we gave living supplies to 445 families, representing 2317 persons, at money expense of $2536.15. Owing to the physical difficulty of getting about since my recent illness, it has been necessary to call upon the assistance of my daughter. This organization is deeply indebted to her, as she has served without recompense.

With regret, I make record here of the death of Mrs. George Francis Richardson. Her husband was president of the Free church of the Ministry-at-Large for many years, and she its devoted friend and supporter. Her active interest began during the ministry of Rev. Horatio Wood and continued to the end of varied and useful life. We shall miss her inspiration and accompaniment, while at the same time we remember with gratitude her lifelong association. In the new generation which is now in possession of the new city. It is to be hoped that before long some one may appear capable of continuing her example of democratic friendliness and leadership.

BEAUTIFUL STAGE SETTINGS COMPLETED

Mr. J. H. Fish, the scenic artist for the new Al Lutteringer Stock Players, who are operating for a permanent season at the Opera House Monday, has prepared some unusually attractive settings for the first show that will be presented there all next week. The show "East is West" is one that naturally lends itself to plenty of color and attractiveness and that Mr. Fish has done justice to the original production as it was presented in New York city is putting it mildly, as the paintings and stage pictures are the most beautiful ever shown in this city. In particular is the opening scene of the Chinese Love Boat, where the Chinese go to buy wives for themselves. The setting is so realistic that the audience will fairly be lifted from this side of the ocean and transplanted in the Orient for the entire play.

Mr. Fish has made considerable of a reputation for himself for this particular kind of work and with his settings here in Lowell it is assuredly assuming the direction of all stage that patrons of the Opera House will see plays put on equally as good as the original Broadway productions.

MANY EMPTY STORES IN MIDDLESEX STREET

Here is a chance for someone to solve a genuine puzzle and do a little missionary work at the same time. Find the answer and you will please a lot of Lowell real estate men and private property owners interested in mercantile matters down on Middlesex street.

Twenty-three vacant stores in the short stretch from Tower's corner to the Middlesex street railroad crossing, are listed with local real estate men for either rental, lease or sale.

The fact that so many stores, most of which are small in area, are vacant with other streets in the central section of Lowell having few good store buildings large or small, vacant, is something that has mystified local real estate men.

The men who handle real estate by lease, sale or transfer, declare that there is no reason in the world why all of these vacant stores should not have tenants.

Rentals on Middlesex street are not low enough, in the opinion of business men who occupy parts of trade on adjoining streets.

Real estate dealers say the amount of traffic down Middlesex street daily—and several times a day in very large totals when the textile mills release their workers at noon time and when the evening whistles blow—is the largest of any street of similar area in the city, and most everyone agrees.

Late last fall, there were numerous stores on the short Middlesex street stretch vacant or about to be vacated. In October only six stores were vacant. December 1, there were nine stores unoccupied, and today there were 23 good business locations, without tenants.

Two modern shop sections of mercantile areas have been completed during the winter, but in one place where there are several new small stores in a row, only two are occupied. The other places ready for occupants, have not been leased so far as known.

The real estate handlers of property down Middlesex street way, are thinking of starting a campaign of publicity, with Middlesex street vacant stores the topic for investigation, debate and disposal.

11 MORE K. K. K. LETTERS AT WOONSOCKET

WOONSOCKET, R. I., Jan. 19.—Eleven more letters threatening life and property were received here today, similar in character to previous missives and signed "K.K.K." Today's collection brings the total to 25 since last Saturday.

The local postoffice, two coal companies, a church, hotel and several business men were the recipients today and police authorities now are actively investigating, with a view to rounding up some suspects.

JAPANESE DOCTORS COMING TO U. S.

TOKIO, Jan. 18 (by the Associated Press).—Dr. Yoshinori Tugaki, chief surgeon of the Tokyo charity hospital, will be included in a party of six doctors who will tour the United States and Canada on the invitation of President George Edgar Vincent of the Rockefeller Foundation. The party will sail from San Francisco Feb. 23.

CLERK SOLVES MYSTERY FOR DETECTIVE

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., Jan. 19.—A hotel clerk here today held the solution of a mystery presented to him yesterday by Sir Unell Thomson, former chief of Scotland Yard.

"I tell you, sir," exclaimed Sir Haall as he hastened for his train, "my pocketbook is gone; and I tell you there hasn't been a soul in my room but myself."

A maid found the pocketbook hidden beneath the pillow on the bed used by Sir Unell.

NO TRACE FOUND OF MISSING SCHOONER

NORFOLK, Va., Jan. 19.—Coast guard headquarters today still was without official information as to the whereabouts of the schooner Helvetia, for which search by the coast guard cutter Manning since Monday had proved unavailing. A dorell reported floating off Winter Quarter, which some believed might be the missing boat, had not been found, officers reported.

The Helvetia sailed from New York

for Charleston, S. C., Dec. 18, and failure to arrive at her port of destination was reported yesterday.

HOW SCHAEFER FORCED UMPIRE TO CALL GAME

"The funniest situation I ever saw three runs in the last of the fourth. It was raining pretty hard. That made it a ball game and we were anxious for Bill to call it."

"Nothing doing," he replied, "you boys enjoyed yourself so much the last inning, it's a shame to deprive you of your fun."

"We played the next three innings in a driving rain. There was no chance of either side making a run. Evans let on he enjoyed the rain and was deaf to our entreaties to call it."

"Finally, Herman Schaefer, now dead, borrowed a raincoat and umbrella from a fan and appeared at his position at second in that regalia."

"He was the funniest sight I ever saw on the ball field, raincoat buttoned high up, umbrella in one hand, glove on the other."

"That was too much for Evans—he called it."

REUNITE M. E. CHURCHES SEPARATED 79 YEARS

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Jan. 18.—Reuniting of the Methodist Episcopal church and the Methodist Episcopal church south, separated 79 years ago, upon the issue of slavery, approaches realization. A committee of 10 was appointed last night to consider statements of the two bodies and to lay down principles of a contract on which co-operation can be accomplished. This action followed a proposal by representatives of the northern body and the Good Health Secret of Beauty.

Beauty lies in the care a woman bestows upon her hair and in keeping at bay those dread ailments peculiar to her sex, which drag her down and leave telltale traces upon her countenance. Sparkling eyes, the elastic step and a clear complexion never accompany organic troubles. Distressed expression, a sallow complexion, dark circles under the eyes, headache, backaches, and mental depression are the telltale symptoms of women's ailments. Women so troubled should not lose a day in taking Lydia Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, the successful remedy known to overcome women's ills and restore health and beauty.—Adv.

EX-KAISER'S YACHT A TRADE SHIP

LONDON, Jan. 18.—The Hohenzollern, once the palatial pleasure yacht of the former German emperor, is being fitted out as a trade ship by the German government and will be sent on a cruise to the British Dominions. News that the Germans were attempting to get a share of the Dominion trade, which is the backbone of Britain's commerce, has caused English merchants to fit out two ships for a similar voyage.

"The first vessel will be ready to sail by Feb. 1. Soon after another ship will start around the world in the opposite direction in an effort to beat the German boat to its goal."

The beautiful rose-pink furnishings and elegantly appointed cabins of the Hohenzollern have been torn out to make room for stands that will display German goods.

RAPID RECOVERY AFTER TYPHOID AMAZES FRIENDS

Cumco Says Wincarnis Did It

"When I was able to walk around, the doctor said it would be a month or more before I would get back strength. I had pains on both of my sides and around my heart. One evening my brother saw an advertisement of Wincarnis and my mother got me a large bottle."

"By the time I had finished the bottle the pains on my right side were gone. I continued to take Wincarnis and soon the pain on my left side and around my heart disappeared and I quickly became well and strong and was feeling fine long before the time the doctor had said it would take me to get well. All my friends asked me what it was that I was taking that made me look well so quickly."

LONDON, Jan. 19.—(By the Associated Press) The return from Washington of the Baldwin financial mission without having effected a settlement of the British debt is disappointing, the Daily Express says today. It continues:

"If America is so unreasonable in her demands as to make it impossible for us to liquidate our obligations without causing widespread suffering in this country, affairs must wait until Washington is more amenable to the state of the world's money market improves. In no long time, Great Britain might be able to borrow money for

TWO HELD IN DEATH OF MISS MANN, ACTRESS

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Jan. 19.—A photograph of Roger V. B. Clarke, held in connection with the mysterious death of Fritz Mann, classic dancer, whose body was found on the beach near here Monday, was identified early today as like that of a man who had accompanied the dancer to a cottage in La Jolla Sunday night and registered as "William Johnstone and wife."

In Mr. and Mrs. Flowers' home here, Flowers said last night: "Clark's statement that he spent Sunday night with Mrs. Flowers and myself is absolutely false."

Though the veterinary science was not systematically studied until the 18th century, it is said to have originated in Rome about 300 A.D.

FEED USEFUL WILD BIRDS

Division of Fisheries, and Game Director Appeals to Friends of Birds

(Special to The Sun)
STATE HOUSE, Jan. 19.—Appealing to bird lovers and sportsmen to feed the useful wild birds during the present heavy fall of snow, William C. Adams, director of the state division of fisheries and game, today solicited funds and grain to help his department carry on the work.

Mr. Adams suggests that grain be placed in sheltered locations with southern exposure and sand or coal ashes put out as a source of grit. Sweepings of barn floors and hay mows will be very acceptable to the birds, he declares.

He emphasizes that the birds to be fed are the ground-feeding variety such as the pheasant and quail. The non-beneficial birds such as the crows, blue-jays, starlings and the English sparrows should not be encouraged to come to the feeding stations, he says.

Applications for grain sent to the Division of Fisheries and Game, 505 State House, will be promptly filled or application can be made to the district wardens.

The director says that fish and game clubs, boy and girl scouts, rural mail carriers, teamsters and others can aid materially in this work.

The funds available for this purpose are limited, he says, and contributions of grain or money will be thankfully received and used exclusively for this purpose.

"It is earnestly hoped that this appeal will not go unheeded by those who are in a position to get out and feed the birds for if they neglect to assist the birds through this crisis, the severe weather will undoubtedly exact a heavy toll among our feathered friends," the director says. "Their best asset in combating the rigors of winter is a full stomach."

Urged to "Hold Out"

BERLIN, Jan. 19.—(By the Associated Press.) The executive council of the Imperial Union of German Industries has sent Fritz Thyssen a message expressing "gratitude and pride at the manly attitude of the Ruhr industrialists and urging them to continue to hold out."

Dr. Buchner, acting chairman of the council, said that Germany's watchword must be to hold out under all circumstances. He asserted that the French nation would eventually realize that Premier Poincaré's policy was disastrous.

French Prevent Removal

MAYENCE, Jan. 19.—(By the Associated Press.) The French have succeeded in preventing removal to the interior of Germany of the funds in the local branch of the Reichsbank, which was closed yesterday by the Germans on instructions from Berlin. The funds were confiscated by the occupational authorities.

French Seize Money

DUSSELDORF, Jan. 19.—(By the Associated Press) The French authorities today appropriated the money in the Dusseldorf branch of the Reichsbank. They also rounded up the automobiles of depositors who had come to the bank to draw money from the institution, seized the money withdrawn and retained possession of the automobiles.

A demand was made by the occupational authorities for a detail of 40 police to close the streets adjoining the bank, but the municipality refused to supply the men.

State Forest Seized

BINGEN, Jan. 19.—(By the Associated Press.) The state forest in this region has been seized by the occupying forces. The local branch of the Reichsbank has been put under French guard.

Seize Coke Ovens

RECKLINGHAUSEN, Jan. 19.—(By the Associated Press.) French troops today took possession of four coke ovens belonging to the Reichs-Rohstoff, who refused to hand over the records.

Shortage of Marks Critical

DUSSELDORF, Jan. 19.—The shortage of paper marks has reached a critical stage. The banks are refusing to give marks in exchange for amounts of more than 100 francs, five dollars or one pound sterling to a person. They say this restriction is made necessary by the seizure of the local branch of the Reichsbank.

Fruits of Occupation

BERLIN, Jan. 19.—(By the Associated Press.) After a week of France's economic grip in the Ruhr, it seemed here today that M. Coste and General De Goutte had received little more than their trouble for their pains in their attempts to enforce reprisals.

A few coal barges intercepted here and there and an occasional coal train reconsigned were the only fruits of the occupation apparent in the capital. Indeed, it was said that more coal was shipped yesterday to places outside of the occupied area than on Tuesday.

It is feared that the reluctance of shippers to move coal on the Rhine in the face of confiscation by the French may result in a complete shutting off of the domestic supply.

Reports Interest London

LONDON, Jan. 19.—(By the Associated Press.)—Two reports of efforts toward mediation in the Franco-German situation were read with interest by Londoners today.

The first, which came nearest home was an Essex despatch to the Times declaring that the German government was sending a confidential mission here to request Great Britain to lend her services in composing the Ruhr differences.

The other report, contained in reliable advices from Paris, reiterated that Italy was desirous of effecting a settlement between France and Germany, chiefly because of the extent of the French military operations which do not meet with official approval in Rome.

Officials here, however, profess to see little hope of success for a mediation plan at this time, when Wilhelmstrasse's policy has the whole-hearted support of all Germans, including the socialists.

The Times' Essen representative in a despatch filed last night, says that Although no unfortunate incident had occurred the temper of the Ruhr population was worse than at any time during the week of occupation.

Berlin Denies Report

LONDON, Jan. 19.—Reuter's Berlin correspondent says he is officially informed that there is no foundation to the report that Germany contemplates sending a mission to London to obtain British mediation in the Ruhr.

Delay Sign of Weakness

ESSEN, Jan. 19.—(By the Associated Press.) The announcement at French General headquarters that the customs and forest control to be inaugurated immediately in the Rhineland would be promulgated shortly in the Ruhr, brought forth the comment in German circles that the French military authorities were reluctant to apply such penalties in the newly occupied area.

Delay in enforcement of the measures here is regarded by the Germans as a sign of weakness. They declare that the Rhineland, having submitted without a murmur to four years of occupation, are now the first to be thus punished.

As the French, Italian and Belgian customs experts completed their plans for controlling the export business of the Rhineland, which includes 70 per cent of Germany's iron trade as well as the products of the Krupp plant at Alst-El-Chapelle, the Ruhr valley offered neither resistance nor opposition to the regulation of coal shipments. The amount thus taken over so far is small.

Blame French for Soaring Prices
There was great rejoicing today over the letter written to General Denigine by Dr. Gruentzer, president of Rhenish Prussia, in which he declared that the French have been responsible for the increased living costs in the Ruhr and that they are incapable, by reason of their inexperience, of administering the Ruhr valley industries.

The communication also warned the French that famine appeared unavoidable. In reply to the French retort that this was an attempt at blackmail,

Dr. Gruentzer asserted that expert houses in Canada and Holland, which have been supplying the Ruhr with cereals and other food, have given notice that shipments could not be continued.

Bar German Patriotic Songs

The Franco-Belgian order forbidding the singing of "Deutschland Ueber Alles" or the "Die Wacht Am Rhein" under penalty of a fine of 200,000 marks or six months imprisonment is regarded with disgust. It promises to be a real hardship for the pent up feelings of the Ruhr workers who have frequently found an outlet in these and other patriotic songs.

The Germans as the occupation begins its second week continue to concentrate their resistance to economic and financial lines. To a neutral observer this appears to have put the French on the defensive. The control commission, however, adopts an optimistic attitude, asserting that the German civilian and the Ruhr workman will be the first to suffer from such tactics.

TRAINS DELAYED
Morning trains to Boston from the Middlesex street railroad station this morning were badly delayed from 6 a. m. onward, owing to congestions of traffic at points in New Hampshire. No serious accidents have been reported, but stalled freight at Hooksett & M. stopped the 15-car regular passenger and express train two hours and 40 minutes. The schedule time-table arrival is 6.41 a. m., and this has been in former times one of the most popular Lowell-Boston trains on the B.

ING CASE
the Goose Creek whipping cases. Sheriff T. Binford and agents of the district attorney's office had a second man in jail here today and planned to arrest two or three more. Claude Buckley, the first suspect, was released after but a few minutes questioning by the grand jury yesterday. It was said he established an alibi. The second man is held on a charge of assault to murder after having been identified by both Mrs. R. H. Harrison and R. A. Armand, victims of a masked band on the night of Jan. 6. The jury is working under instructions to lay aside all other matters and go to the root of the Goose Creek attack. New York's elevator transport 6,000,000 passengers daily.

CAMPAIGN OF ADVERTISING FOR LOWELL PROPOSED AT AD CLUB MEETING BY SEC'Y GALLAGHER

At the meeting of the Lowell Ad Club, Secretary-Treasurer Edward W. Gallagher in retiring from office made an appeal for an advertising campaign for Lowell and read a statement of what cities all over the country are doing along this line to attract business. He showed that some of the southern cities are conducting extensive advertising campaigns, to draw thither the cotton factories of the north. He urged the advertising of Lowell as one of the activities that should engage the attention of the club during the present year. The statement followed:

An advertising club we should have something related purely to advertising to work upon—therefore, I propose that the Lowell Advertising Club set to work immediately to plan for a countrywide advertising campaign for Lowell under the slogan, "Tell the World About Lowell."

Progressive cities throughout the country are now building up their resources and strengthening what they have by advertising and by publicity campaigns—which may be general in nature or for a specific purpose such as home seekers, industries, conventions, tourists, automobilists, etc. I would not propose a purely local campaign for Lowell, but one that would reach throughout the country.

Lowell may not have the advantages that some cities have, but it has some advantages that other cities haven't and that's what we should stress in any campaign. In any event publicity of the favorable kind would be helpful to Lowell.

The plan of campaign is something which should be worked out by the Lowell Advertising Club as well as the method of financing which may be either by an appropriation by the city or a community fund. All media of influence should be used: newspapers, magazines, outdoor signs, direct mail, etc.

It is a subject which needs deep study and on which this club should set to work immediately. To show you what some cities are doing in the line of community advertising I wish to present these figures: for cities that have made appropriations for magazines or newspaper advertising together with the chief object of advertising and the amount expended:

Automobiles: Minneapolis, $2000. Tourists: Denver, $85,000; San Antonio, Tex., $125,000; Portland, Me., $6000; San Diego, Cal., $15,000; Galveston, Tex., $3500; Jamestown, N. Y., $2500; Auburn, N. Y., $500; Trinidad,

WON OUT AFTER 3 YEARS, SHE SAYS

Long-Standing Stomach Trouble of New Haven Woman Entirely Ended—Feels 20 Years Younger

"Since taking Tanlac I feel twenty years younger, my strength has returned and I have gained five pounds," declared Mrs. E. V. Brown, a retired resident of 94 Henry Street, New Haven, Conn.

"I suffered terribly from stomach trouble for three years and was badly run down, weak and nervous. My appetite fell away to nothing because I couldn't crave food and anyway nearly everything I would eat caused me such agony from pains in my stomach. Gas bloated me all up and pressed around my heart so that sometimes I could hardly breathe, and my unstrung nerves would not let me sleep."

"My daughter, Mrs. E. M. Starck, had symptoms similar to mine, and she got such fine relief from Tanlac I was persuaded to try it. It wasn't long after I started that I began getting better, and now I have such a fine appetite I can enjoy my meals just like my little granddaughter, and everything agrees with me. I am in perfect health again, thanks to Tanlac, and just can't praise it too highly."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Over 35-million bottles sold. Adv.

Colo., $2000; Kearney, Neb., $500; St. Augustine, Fla., $1000. General: Portland, Ore., $10,000; Seattle, Wash., $7500; Richmond, Va., $10,000; Nashville, Tenn., $25,000; Tacoma, Wash., $3000; Norfolk, Va., $300. Home seekers: Berkeley, Cal., $3500; El Paso, Tex., $1500; Walla Walla, Wash., $7000.

Winona, Minn., conventions, $1400. Factories: Kokuk, Ind., $15,000; Elmira, N. Y., $300; Quincy, Ill., $1100; Adrian, Mich., $300; Paterson, N. J., $300; York, Pa., $700; Charleston, W. Va., $3500; Hannibal, Mo., $300.

Other cities which have conducted advertising campaigns either on a smaller or larger scale: Dover, N. H.; Beverly, Mass.; Salem, Mass.; Portsmouth, N. H.; Topeka, Kan.; Greenville, S. C.; St. Louis.

These cities have projected campaigns as follows: Detroit, $100,000; Kansas City, $75,000; Chicago, $150,000; Seattle, $70,000; San Francisco, $100,000; Denver, $50,000; Sioux City, $15,000; Jackson, Miss., $25,000; Greenville, S. C.; Boston, Mass.

The advertising club of Columbus, Ga., is co-operating with other organizations of business men in Columbus in raising $100,000 to advertise Columbus.

Columbus has a good advertising club and its officers and members are anxious to contribute their share—and more—in this big undertaking.

It is a selling proposition throughout. First, they have the job of selling the city itself on its own opportunities and the importance of selling its advantages to the world outside, and then comes the task of putting over a campaign that will sell these advantages to the interests outside.

The Town Criers of St. Paul are now in the midst of a campaign. Instead of selecting a commercial article around which to build a complete advertising campaign, the club has selected the city as the subject.

The mere planning of this campaign is something from which no individual will benefit directly, and yet a problem in which all may participate as he would a course of study in which he is particularly interested.

What more beneficial service should the Lowell Advertising Club undertake than to give the city the benefit of expert study on the publicity problem on their own city?

The Advertising Club of Tacoma, Wash., is sponsoring a campaign to raise $50,000 to advertise Tacoma. California is planning a nation-wide campaign.

Portland, Ore., is now busy raising $200,000 advertising fund. Portland, Me., is planning for a campaign.

The state of Florida will probably break into print soon with a $1,000,000 campaign.

Why is it that the south and west are progressing so rapidly? It is because they push themselves; they go out after business. They let the world know of their advantages.

For instance here is a page advertisement detailing the "Conditions For Successful Manufacturing" in relation to Greenville, S. C. The north has a series sent broadcast throughout the country. And then they ask why the south is drawing the textile industry from the north. Perhaps if the north were a little more enthusiastic about the advantages it has and the south hasn't, it might counteract this trend to the south.

The city that gets the publicity gets the business. The city that gets the advertising grows.

Property will increase in value when the outside world knows your city is where it is.

If your city doesn't go out and get after the trade, some neighboring city will. If they do, they'll get the business you should get.

FLIES FROM DAYTON TO NEW YORK IN 4 HOURS

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—Lieut. Alex Pearson and Bradley Jones yesterday broke the time record for an airplane flight between Dayton and New York, landing at Mitchell Field, Long Island, at 4:29 p. m., unofficial time, making the distance in four hours and three minutes.

The previous record was four hours and 30 minutes. Lieut. Pearson, who piloted a DH-4 plane, said he had taken advantage of a southerly gale which had prevailed throughout the trip.

Official clocks at the field registered 4:32 p. m. when the plane landed on Pearson's watch showed 4:29 p. m. Although the haze and the strong winds encountered interfered somewhat with a test of the sextant, which was said to have been the prime purpose of the flight, the results were satisfactory, he asserted and another test would be made on the westward journey.

The flight was made at an altitude of between 2500 and 4000 feet. Lieut. Pearson said he flew over Springfield, Columbus, Zanesville and Moundsville, O.; Pottsville, Harrisburg, Reading and Philadelphia, Pa., and direct from Trenton, N. J., to Mitchell Field.

TRUCK SKIDS INTO ELECTRIC CAR

A large truck owned by the John T. Connor company collided with a street car in the square last night interfering with traffic for about half an hour.

The truck, in endeavoring to pass the car, skidded, and a corner of the body wedged into one of the car windows so that neither car nor truck could move. After considerable delay the truck was pushed away from the car and proceeded to its destination.

ATTACHMENTS FILED

Two attachments, one in the sum of $5000 and the other $10,000 were filed yesterday at the registry of deeds office against Herbert A. Rugg in actions of tort brought by Mr. and Mrs. Philip Goldman and Mr. Philip Goldman respectively. These actions are for trespass and damages to the property and are based on the finding of the jury in the case tried at the recent session of the superior court, which suit was brought by John J. Dickman, executor of the will of Bertha Rugg Gillard, a sister of Mr. Rugg against the Goldmans. The jury in that case found in favor of the Goldmans.

SUFFERED WITH ECZEMA YEARS

In Rash, Itched and Burned. Cuticura Heals.

"I suffered from eczema for years. Every part of my body was affected excepting my face and below my elbows. It broke out in a rash and itched and burned so that I was always scratching. The scratching caused eruptions, which later scaled over. My clothing aggravated the breaking out, and I lost sleep."

"I sent for a free sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and got relief. I purchased more, and after using three cakes of Soap and two boxes of Ointment I was healed." (Signed) Meyer Stroszofsky, 553 Elton St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

MOVE TO UNITE NORTH AND SOUTH IRELAND

LONDON, Jan. 19.—Lord Glenavy, chairman of the Irish Free State senate has approached the government of Northern Ireland with a view to effecting a union of the north and south, says a Belfast dispatch to the Central News. The correspondent declares that leading Ulster citizens have received letters from prominent supporters of the Free State government urging the north to "come in" in the hope that the strife between the two factions might thereby be ended. Opinion in Belfast inclines to the belief that the advances are not likely to bear fruit, the dispatch adds.

DOG IS HERO OF TRUE EPIC

Major, a large setter, was seized with a fit and lay paralyzed at Cumminsville, O., in the path of an onrushing train. A passing freight prevented Major's friends from reaching him. But Fritz, a little mixedbreed, rushed between a moving freight car, reached Major and rolled him off the tracks to safety. Picture shows Major (left), Fritz and their friend, Miss Anna Dunblay.

OPENING OF NEW K. OF C. QUARTERS

A special meeting of Lowell Council, No. 72, Knights of Columbus, was held last night, for the purpose of arranging final details for the opening of the new quarters on January 23. The event will be observed with a banquet, speeches and general entertainment. The committee on arrangements will meet again Sunday morning at 10:30.

and house committee will meet Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

WOMEN'S RELIEF CORPS

Four applications for membership were received at last evening's meeting of James A. Garfield, W.R.C., 33, which was held in Memorial hall, and routine business was transacted. In the afternoon what was played under the direction of the president, Mrs. Alice M. Schofield. Supper was served under the direction of Mrs. Mary Smith and Laura Colburn.

ACTIVE CAMPAIGN FOR NEW MEMBERS

Healthy interest is still being maintained in the local work and progressive plans for future growth of the Y.W.C.A. Although the bad weather of the month has somewhat handicapped the new membership campaign, the various committees are not disheartened. The campaign opened with strong impetus on Monday last, and yesterday the names of many new members were down on the official lists. The quota sought is 500. A large thermometer has been placed in the lobby and now records the progress made each day.

The postponed board meeting will be held tomorrow afternoon, when the regular business will be discussed. The local basketball team will play Lawrence Y.W.C.A. tomorrow in the latter city. The local team members are: Miss Rosella Hogan, captain and right guard; Miss Elizabeth Joyce, left guard; Miss Germaine Bennett, left forward; Miss Laura Edmunds, right forward; Miss Anna Robert, side center; Miss Elizabeth Jennings, substitute. The business manager of the team is Miss Alice O'Brien.

Local rosters are to leave the Lowell Y.W.C.A. in a truck at 4:30 o'clock, with the physical director, Miss Mildred Martin, in charge.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

The appearances of Harry Holmes and Florida La Vere in "Themselves" at the B. F. Keith theatre, this week, are being warmly received. Their act is distinctive in every way and it gives as nice a bit of satire as one will find often on the stage. Freda and

Anthony in their tangled talk and comedy are good runners-up in the list of entertainers. While James Dutton & Co. in a high class equestrian act rank with the very best ever seen here in a burlesque act. Paul and Goss, a pair of snappy juveniles, put forth a turn called "The Co-Weds" which is full of comedy. It is a splendid turn. Then there are Paul Berco, Russian comedian; the Rose Revue, a tip-top dancing act; and Roy and Boyer, comedy acrobats.

RIALTO THEATRE

In the complete change of program to be seen at the Rialto theatre beginning this afternoon the feature has Constantine Rummy in "First Love." A supporting feature introduces William Duncan in "The Silent Yow." Other attractions are a Larry Semon comedy, entitled "Between the Acts" and Blomire Lincoln in "The Adventures of Parzan."

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

George Ade never wrote a more humorous story than "Back Home" and the feature attraction of the current program at the Merrimack square theatre. As played by Thomas Meighan on the screen, it is an attraction that one cannot afford to miss. Another big feature for the week-end is "On the High Seas," starring Dorothy Dutton and Jack Holt. This has been aptly described a melodrama of the sea. It is packed with thrills.

"THE HOTTEST" COMING

Laughter, thrills and love are combined in "The Hottest," Thomas H. Ince's new comedy, which comes to the Merrimack square theatre for four days, commencing Sunday. The play is adapted from the stage play in which White Center scored a tremendous success. There is a strong love interest to capture the romantics' imagination and there is plenty of dramatic action to satisfy the lover of the theatre. Douglas Coleman and Madge Hollaway play the leading roles.

THE STRAND

Two truly commendable pictureizations are being shown at The Strand during the week-end. The first is "Secrets of Paris" with an all-star cast headed by Lew Cody and including Rose Coughlin, Effie Shannon, Dolores Cassinelli, Montagu Love, Gladys Nettle and others. The second is William Farnum in "A Self-Made Man." Besides the above there is the usual comedy and variety don't miss this picture treat. Is worthy of your consideration.

"THE JOLLY TEN" CLUB

A club called "The Jolly Ten" has been organized in Lowell. The first meeting was held at the home of Miss Frances Carp on Sunday, Jan. 14, and plans were made to encourage sports and social functions among the younger set of the city. The ten members are the Misses Frances and Evelyn Carp, Zelma Guzman, Ida Klegerman, Edith Kahren, Martha Levine, Nettie and Rose Rostler, and Lillian and Pearl Wener.

George E. Law, Brazil, (Ind.), justice of the peace, says he's wed 10,413 couples, more than twice as many as any other man in the world. They, with their children, would make up a city of more than 50,000 inhabitants, says Law. Here's Law's "marriage mill" with the chairs he has marked to facilitate splicing parties.

Influenza Hits U. S. Naval Academy

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Jan. 19.—Influenza has struck the United States naval academy, 150 midshipmen and 43 enlisted men being confined in the naval academy hospital. It is stated the institution is crowded and that extra help has been engaged. All cases, so far, are in mild form. It is understood the cases have been developing at the rate of 15 or 20 a day.

BOSTON LADIES' OUTFITTERS—"Store Ahead"

Abe Lincoln Said:

"You can fool all the people part of the time; some of the people all the time, but you can't fool all the people all of the time." Some stores promising something for nothing—offering merchandise at less than cost—try to make you think they are charitable institutions—but Lincoln was right, they can't get away with it. The Boston Ladies' Outfitters is successful because it always gives the best values in Lowell—no exaggerated mark-downs—no bankrupt stocks—no sale goods—finest quality—newest in style—always at lower prices than elsewhere.

"COME BACK"

Gentleman Farmer Wintering at South Sudbury Round- ing Into Condition

"Babe" Down to 215

SOUTH SUDBURY, Jan. 19. (By the Associated Press.)—Babe Ruth is coming back strong to regain his honors as the home run king. He says so. He looks it.

A gentleman farmer, sowing seeds of hard work, regular hours and simple food that he may reap a harvest of his money, Babe Ruth is wintering in this snow-covered New England country, seeking to lay a firm foundation for his "come-back." If appearances may be taken at their face value, he is doing it. It confidence may be taken at its own appraisal, the Babe is well on the way to making good his pledge to the kids of New York that he would be back at the top of home run heap this year.

Ruth

Twenty pounds taken off under a regime of splitting wood, setting up exercises, hiking and, in recent weeks, snow-shoveling, is the measure of Ruth's conditioning process to date together with an appearance of fitness that is its outward mark. But the weight is not yet content. He weighed 235 pounds when he left Broadway for his farmhouse here. He weighs 215 pounds today. He says he expects to get down to 225 when the season opens, with a two weeks' stay at Hot Springs, Ark., meantime likely to bring him close to that goal.

"I am back now where I was three years ago," Ruth said in discussing the success of his efforts to reduce weight as a condition to increasing his power and speed at the bat with sharpness of eye are the components of his hitting prowess. "I'll have to work pretty hard to get any more off, but I'm going to do it."

A month from now I'll be in Hot Springs. Meantime I have a lot of fun to cut and hunt and this driving a horse and buggy does not get as soft as whittling the wheel of an automobile. I ought to be close to 205 when I return to the Yankees at New Orleans, and that is my best weight."

The Babe's two automobiles are in dead storage but not through his wish. They have been snow-bound in his barn for days at a time, while the country roads leading from his renovated farmhouse where he has made a home for Mrs. Ruth baby Dorothy and himself, were impassable except by sleigh. As a consequence, Ruth had to rely on the lead of his fellow farmers and on a team of horses to take him to the village for supplies. The puny was hired. His use was one detail of his conditioning process that was not the result of a whim.

In the evenings, through the winter, the Ruths have kept early hours, declining invitations to what are known as the "hot" parties of the season, and the country folk of the countryside, that the Babe might follow on his schedule. Two trips to New York, one to attend to his business and the other to see his friends in Boston and elsewhere, were made when the roads were open, to other places in New England, have been the only breaks from the family routine.

One of Ruth's trips to New York occurred earlier this week when he underwent a slight operation for an inflamed appendix, the third of his kind, the result of an old injury. The operation, however, was not of serious character and the player's hand was expected to return to the field.

With baby Dorothy on his knee, Ruth presents a picture in contrast with that familiar to fans who know him as the "home run king" of the diamond.

Thoughts of the game are always with him, however. The Babe was quite willing to discuss his present condition and his plans for the future, but he was not at all disposed to discuss his future in the game.

Whether he can equal or better his high mark of 70 home runs in his condition and on the new grounds of the New York Americans, he said. His confidence in his own future, intention, would be the best. The fences at the new park remained the uncertain quantity. Opposing pitchers were not considered.

As to the proposal to apply a zoning plan, which would make two and three stories of buildings, the Babe dismissed the subject with the statement: "It's a crazy idea. Leave the rules alone."

RARE TREAT ON FOR BASKETBALL FANS

LEWIS BEATS KENOYER

Lawrence "Come Back" Adds

Another Victory to List—

Good Bouts at Moody Club

Two technical knockouts, both coming in the second round, and three battles that went the distance eight rounds, made up the Moody club boxing card enjoyed by a large crowd at the Crescent rink last night.

In announcing the program the club matchmaker predicted it would be a strictly action card and this it proved to be. "Action" was written over each and every number and lovers of the "kick 'em and sock 'em" endeavor hugely enjoyed the card.

The final bout of the evening presented two great rivals. Young Kenoyer of Dorchester, N. H., and Kid Lewis, the sensational Lawrence "Come Back."

It was the best event on the program and had the fans on their feet many times. The pair met a few weeks ago and Lewis was awarded the decision. Kenoyer claimed he deserved it. Thus few preliminaries were indulged in. Lewis was out to prove that the decision in the previous battle was O. K.

Kenoyer resolved to demonstrate the ruling was in error.

At the tap of the first gong Kenoyer rushed at his opponent like a three footed man. Lewis was there to meet him, and when they came together in the center the fireworks began. Lewis opened up furious left and right punches, and Kenoyer, who was not to be outdone, returned the blows with a vengeance.

The battle was fast, with both boys taking and giving much punishment. Every round was replete with action, but Lewis' aggressiveness brought him the decision.

Jack Dillon, the B.C. student, who took Frankie Christos' place, met Johnny Gray of Nahant in the first bout of the evening. They got right down to business in the opening round. Both showed good hitting and defensive ability. Gray got the jump, but Dillon refused to back on the defensive. He fared to the front as the rounds were told and showed much cleverness in using up his opponent. He used a fine left hook, and while Gray ducked many of his vicious swings, he got over a number that had the desired result. Dillon was awarded the decision.

The second bout was short and sweet-sweet for all but Sammy Seiger, who was the recipient of a crashing right jab by George S. Slinger.

Frank Snyder Is Perfect Catcher

FRANK SNYDER

BY BILLY EVANS
John McGraw calls Frank Snyder, clever backstop of the New York Giants, "the perfect catcher."

In discussing the great catchers of the National league has produced, McGraw says:

"Frank Snyder is the ideal catcher. He is the equal of any backstop the National league has developed."

"In paying that compliment to Snyder I am not unmindful of the fact that in Roger Bresnahan, George Gibson, Charlie Root, Johnny Kling and Jimmie Archer, the National league boasts some great receivers."

In referring to Snyder as the ideal catcher, McGraw has in mind his physical make-up, his courteous nature, his mechanical excellence and his ability to think.

His last season's career.

Snyder's career is indeed unusual. He was considered a brilliant catcher during his term with the St. Louis Cardinals. Something happened to the right arm—rheumatism, or something that took the smoke out of it and it never came back.

Snyder offered for trade to the Yankees in National league headquarters. The year before, Miller Huggins, as manager of the Yankees, had refused a cash offer of $50,000 from the St. Louis Pirates. Nevertheless, Snyder had a time arm and they did not want him.

McGraw, always admiring the pluck and the courage of the husky Texan, played a long shot and won. He traded Snyder to the Yankees for a pitcher, a player who had a bad left wrist and Snyder a stable right arm.

Snyder came back last season, with an average of .312, he was the hardest hitting catcher in the National league.

That McGraw puts a guarantee behind his word is shown by the world series in the last two world series with the Yankees. Snyder has caught 10 of the 13 games.

Ernie Smith was regarded as a young phenom until Snyder recovered his form and Smith had been forced to play second base to Snyder.

The work of the Giants' pitchers during the last two world series, McGraw has been given most of the credit by the experts. Here is what McGraw says:

"Snyder's catching in the two series with the Yankees was perfect. That means everything to a pitcher."

GAMES TONIGHT

Providence at Lowell.
Worcester at New Bedford.

PORTLAND, Mo., Jan. 19.—In a fast and well played game Portland won over Lowell last night by the score of 4 to 2. The game was hotly contested. Red Williams and Thompson teamed up well on the Portland rush line and each hammered in a brace of goals. Kid Williams snared for Lowell his longest play, a fine game in front of the Lowell cage. In spot rushing the Lowell Williams put it over on his brother, 5 to 4. The final score.

Engineer Blamed for Wreck

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Responsibility for the wreck on the Southern Pacific at Humble, Tex., Dec. 13, in which 22 persons were killed and 11 injured, was placed today by interstate commerce commission inspectors upon J. N. Smith, engine watchman, who had been placed in charge of a light engine on a side track at Humble. Smith, the inspectors' report said, moved the engine to a point so near the main track that a passing passenger train was side swiped and wrecked.

A GLASS OF SALTS
CLEARS PIMPLY SKIN*Says Indigestion Results From an Excess of Hydrochloric Acid

Undigested food delayed in the stomach days, or rather ferments, the same as food left in the open air, says a noted authority. He also tells us that indigestion is caused by hyperacidity meaning there is an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach which prevents complete digestion and starts food fermentation. Thus everything eaten sours in the stomach much like garbage sours in a can, forming acid fluids and gasses which inflate the stomach like a toy balloon. Then we feel a heavy, lumpy misery in the chest, we belch, up gas we eructate (our food or have heartburn, flatulence, water-brash or nausea).

It tells us to lay aside all digestive aids and instead get from any pharmacy four ounces of Jad salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and drink it while it is effervescent, and furthermore, to continue this for a week. While relief often follows the first dose, it is important to help neutralize the acidity, remove the gas-making mass, start the liver, stimulate the kidneys and thus promote a free flow of pure digestive juices.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and sodium phosphate. This harmless salt is used for many stomach disorders with excellent results.—Adv.

NEAR BENEDICT HONORED

Postmaster Delisle is Tendered Bachelor Party at the Lafayette Club

Postmaster Xavier A. Delisle, who on Wednesday next, will be married to Miss Virginia Laura White of Washington, D. C., was tendered a bachelor party at the Lafayette club in Wamsanet street last evening.

X. A. DELISLE

The affair was attended by about 100 friends of the young man, who presented him a beautiful silver chest. The affair was a total surprise to the benedict-to-be, who was induced to go to the club in the early part of the evening by his intimate friend, Rep. Henry Achin. Upon entering the club parlor the young man was quickly surrounded by his friends, and in behalf of those present Emile Gagnon, treasurer of the organization, made the presentation. Mr. Delisle responded in fitting terms and his address was followed by remarks by Rep. Achin and Councilors J. A. N. Chretien, Arthur Genest and Maurice Lambert.

Later all repaired to the dining-room, where an appetizing buffet luncheon was served under the direction of Chef Willie Rousseau. The remainder of the evening was taken up with games and entertainment numbers, which lasted until a seasonable hour, after which Mr. Delisle was showered with best wishes. Mr. Delisle will leave tomorrow afternoon for Washington, D. C., and will return to this city with his bride in the early part of February.

LOMASNEY AND CURLEY BURIED HATCHET

BOSTON, January 18.—Martin M. Lomasney will throw every ounce of his political power into the scales to secure for Mayor Curley the democratic nomination for governor two years hence, notwithstanding the fact that the West End Mahatma backed John R. Murphy to beat Curley 11 months ago.

This was the consensus of opinion among the political philosophers who observed what went on at the democratic city committee's biennial meeting and election last night in Faneuil hall, when Rep. John L. Fitzgerald of the committee, continually recognized as Lomasney's political field marshal, was unanimously reelected to another two-year term.

Francis A. McLaughlin of conspicuous Curley sympathies put Fitzgerald's name in nomination, even though, in past weeks, McLaughlin's own name and that of Patrick J. Brady of West Roxbury, another staunch Curleyite, were most commonly mentioned as the men likeliest to succeed Fitzgerald if the reported truce between the Curley and Lomasney forces was merely another report.

AN ESSENTIAL OF SUCCESS

Good streets and good connecting highways are essential to the success of every city.

In this prolonged period of heavy snow, we are having a good illustration of the partial paralysis of transportation and business due to bad streets and at the same time a negative sort of demonstration of the importance and necessity of good streets.

Here we are as a result of heavy snow upon the streets for a single week, with many streets still impassable and the car service badly crippled. The electric cars have become practically the only medium of conveyance, the automobiles having been rendered almost useless in the deep snow.

The street department has done its best to open up the streets on which no carlines run in order that motor vehicles could enter; but still a considerable number of these streets are impassable to such vehicles. The street department has been asked to clear a passage for funeral, and has done so as far as practicable.

We have here an illustration of the injurious effect of bad streets upon every kind of business and per contra the necessity and advantage of good streets. In the future we must adopt more practical methods of clearing the streets of snow and in order to make our city more attractive and to increase the public facilities for transportation, we must have better streets.

The era of the automobile and the motor truck makes this imperative. The cities that have the best streets are likely to have the best life of business. Good streets are, therefore, a condition precedent to good business. The same may be said of good roads.

The city that cannot be reached by first class highways will be avoided. Hence in planning for the prosperity of a city, a primary consideration is good streets and good highways connecting with neighboring cities and towns. This is why we must devote greater attention to street work and adopt a definite system the development of which will eventually give us first class streets and particularly attractive roads passing through our city.

Most cities are built way stations for the vast array of tourists who are continually traveling in all directions and who seek the finest roads and avoid the cities that are not located on such routes. Cities have to adapt themselves to the new conditions and the sooner they do this, the sooner they will be recognized as up-to-date and among the foremost not only for transients, but for residence and business.

Business at present is suffering because of demoralized railroad transportation. There is a shortage of cars, a shortage of locomotives, a shortage of skilled men to do effective repairs. Here is a case in which the roads viz. the lines of railroad are all right; but they are not or cannot be used to capacity because of other difficulties.

Here again the paralyzing effect of bad transportation conditions is seen. Business prosperity will be hampered until these conditions are remedied. It is but a corollary to the proposition that good streets and good connecting highways are essential to the success of every city. Paralyze the transportation system and you paralyze business. We have had a mild proof of all this in the depressing effect upon general business resulting from many streets being impassable for over a week from deep snow. The lesson is obvious and our city departments will undoubtedly profit by the experience.

THE "BLOC" FAD

In some states the word "bloc" appears to be catching among ardent legislators who discard other means by which to put through pet measures supposedly for the good of all the people but very frequently for the good of a private few.

We have read of the doings in Rhode Island's legislative halls within the past few days, with an all-night session and the reading of extracts from almanacs, dictionaries and even the Bible. Now comes a dispatch from Albany that "blocs" are popular in the new assembly there, although New York state has now a democratic governor, Mr. Smith, and a very able gentleman too, judging from reports. This bloc business is being overdone. Blocs are no longer popular in American legislative halls. Congress at Washington has had enough of them. The American people are tired of their doings. There is too much log-rolling for particular interests and too little attention paid to the needs of the people as a whole.

INTELLIGENCE

Three hundred babies are given so-called intelligence tests at a meeting of American Psychological Association.

Just what is intelligence? It certainly is not merely the possession of facts, for the average schoolboy of 12-13 knows more concrete facts than did Socrates in the days when science and most of the world were unexplored.

We can have a lot of fact-knowledge without being intelligent. Any battle can be filled with milk. Real intelligence is in reasoning power, the ability to distinguish right from wrong and the logically true from the obviously spurious. It is the ability to compare, to apprehend, to recognize distinctions and to draw right conclusions.

TOWN ON TOBACCO

Italy cables that the whole town of San Lorenzo Bellizzi, is slowly stilling down a mountainside. It has moved 2000 feet in two years. The ground under the town is slipping in one solid piece, like a sled carrying a boy. Houses have become tottery and a catastrophe is threatened. But the people take a chance and refuse to move.

It reminds you of householders along big rivers, who flee to the mountains during floods, then move back where they are sure to be flooded victims again. People are like moths, returning to the candle until it "gets" them. Who loves the danger will perish in the danger. We make the same mistakes, commit the same foolishness over and over. The drunkard fears whiskey, but doesn't stop drinking it. In reality, he wants to be its victim.

COSTLY ROADS

Our country now has around 12,400,000 autos and motor trucks, the manufacturers report after a check-up.

Meanwhile the nation is spending $750,000,000 a year on roads. Assuming that roads nowadays are almost exclusively for motor traffic, each car is responsible for $60 of the yearly paving bill.

Figuring it another way, $300 worth of roads is built for each new car manufactured. As long as you are helping pay it, you might as well have a car and wear out your share of the roads. The upkeep of the car however is a matter worth considering.

LURE OF WEALTH

A Boston man goes to prison for stealing $300,000 at the age of 79. Previously, through his long life, he had been so honest and reliable that he had risen to a high business position of trust and a comfortable state of prosperity.

In one stroke he undoes a lifetime of effort. You wonder why a man of 79 suddenly desired great riches at a time when he was too old to enjoy wealth. He could hope to live only a few years at best.

The answer is an old one: Most of us never know when we have enough. We keep on grasping, even though the thing grasped at would be of no use to us if we got it.

CHILDREN'S DEFECTS

Experts examining the school children of Gary, Ind., for physical defects have found only 4.8 per cent or 119 out of a total of 3,125 to be free from such defects.

The most common defects are affections of the nose and throat, adenoids, diseased tonsils, decaying teeth, malnutrition, underweight and some other ailments. In all probability, the children of Gary are not much different from those of any other community. Although these defects do not present any serious danger at the time, it is important that they be remedied, as otherwise the defects of childhood will be carried to adult age.

The Lowell Advertising club has given the people of Lowell a greater appreciation of the value of advertising. It has induced thousands of people to read the advertisements who formerly passed them over as of no importance. It has also created a healthy community spirit in favor of boosting Lowell and making the best of our opportunities for civic improvement. For a club that has just finished one year's work, it is certainly a healthy organization and one that can accomplish much good for Lowell and for her people.

The street department payroll of $23,500 indicates in a measure the effort made to keep the business streets open. The depth of snow renders this a very difficult task; but it is quite apparent that the department is not well equipped for the removal of snow without a great waste of time and the employment of a greater force than would be necessary if the proper machinery were available.

We do not think there is any sentiment in Lowell in favor of extending the municipal pension roll. There are several persons drawing liberal pensions from the city who are better able to earn a living than many who have to work hard for every cent they earn.

Lawrence citizens have shown the right kind of public spirit in raising a fund to help the city pay for the removal of snow from the principal streets. The automobile club started the movement and the result although not enough to clear many streets, showed the right spirit.

So far as we can find out, Henry Ford has not yet announced his candidacy for president. He is doing very well for the present on his 154,000 cars per month, which give him a much greater income than he would draw from the White House job.

The winter carnival to be started at Fort Hill park may be somewhat late; but we are likely to have several more weeks of very cold weather in which such sports can be enjoyed.

Senator Lodge is blamed for raising a point of order that put a stop to the distribution of free seeds. If he never does anything worse than that he will be forgiven.

A state university could conduct courses of study most needed by the masses. The other colleges never do that. They are concerned only with those who are able to pay.

There has also been a resolution on the Island of Corfu. Perhaps you remember that famous little country familiar in school-day histories.

SEEN AND HEARD

And thing about making a mistake is people expect you to do it again.

Sympathy is great, unless it makes you want more of it.

Only one more pair of gloves and two umbrellas until spring.

Many Happy Returns

"Aren't you going to congratulate me, wife? Why, I was just released from the pen today after serving out a sentence of five years," said the ex-convict, his long-suffering wife looked up wearily from her work. "Many happy returns," she said, "I wish you many happy returns."

Henry's Intentions

Uncle Joe, on a visit to his brother's household, seemed particularly interested in Henry, the hopeful. "And what are you going to do when you grow up, Henry?" he asked, gaily. "Well," returned Henry, thoughtfully, "after I have been a minister to please mother, and a judge to please father, I am going to be a policeman."

Many Love Adam

"Sister Amanda Ellen coming that niece Gertrude, who is coming to visit us next week, has had 15 love affairs," said Mrs. Hornbeak looking up from the letter from her city relative. "Well, I should wonder," interestedly ejaculated honest "Parker" Hornbeak. "What in time can she do with 15 imitation ivory toilet sets?"

Got His Answer

At breakfast in one of the hotels an exceedingly fidgety and fretful person within two minutes of giving his order began to quiver and tremble when he was going to get his food. "Walter," he demanded for about the fourth time, "where is my chop?" "It's on the grill, sir," the waiter responded. "Will you have it now, or wait until it's done?"

She Meant Well

He had gone head first into the wind shield when his car collided with a van and two of the crowd, followed by a score of others, were leading him to a nearby drug-store to have his face dressed. "Through the crowd behind him a little woman pushed her way. "Mister," she said earnestly, tapping him on the shoulder, "your hat's dented!"

Obeyed Instructions

"Molly, did I see you sitting on that young man's lap last night?" asked the mother. "Yes," replied Molly, "and it was very embarrassing. I wish you hadn't told me to." "Good heavens!" exclaimed the mother, "I never told you to do anything of the kind. You did what you pleased. Molly," she said, "you told me that if he attempted to be sentimental I must sit on him."

A Thought

And yet I want him to care for me. While I live in this world where the shadows be, When the lights die down from the path I take, When strength is feeble and friends forsake, When love and music that once did bless, Have left me in silence and loneliness, And my life-long changes to sobbing prayers, Then my heart cries out for a God who cures. —Marianne Farquharham.

The Happiest Heart

Who drives the horses of the sun Shall lead it by a golden rein. Better the lowly deed we do, Than the lofty deed we dream. And kept the humble way.

The rust will find the sword of fame, The dust will hide the crown; Ah, none shall sail so high his name Time will not tear it down.

The happiest heart that ever beat Was in some quiet breast That found the common daylight sweet, And left to heaven the rest. —John Vance Cheney.

AD CLUB TO GREET STOCK PLAYERS

Members of the Lowell Advertising club are to organize a theatre party next Tuesday evening, and see "East is West" at the Lowell Opera House. The party will be in actuality a greeting to all Luttering's stock players, who are to open a season next Monday at the Opera House and are to give Lowell theatre patrons the best in stock offerings. The Advertising club has reserved 125 seats for Tuesday night and is preparing a few novel features of entertainment that will make the affair well worth seeing, the members say.

LECTURE POSTPONED

As it was found at the very last moment that the moving picture machine at the Y.M.C.A. was not protected as the state law requires, the lecture by Capt. Edward Conner of the 26th division, at which it was planned to show pictures of the Yankee division, had to be postponed until next Thursday evening, January 25. Those in charge expressed their disappointment at having to postpone the lecture, but promised that everything will be ready and the lecture given at the hall next week.

Conditions could be worse. There are always more troubles we haven't than troubles we have.

MAN ABOUT TOWN

"That the obstruction of street railway and other traffic will not be tolerated, in this city was evidenced in the district court yesterday morning when Judge Knight imposed a substantial fine on a young man who blocked traffic in Stevens street last Saturday afternoon. This is the first case of this nature that has been brought to the attention of the local court for some time and should prove as a warning to automobilists that the rights of the public are to be respected. Deliberate obstruction of a street car is a punishable offense."

The car line turnouts have been shoehorned out of the snow at short intervals to allow automobiles and sleighs room either to pass the cars or to turn aside so as not to block traffic. Regardless of this fact, we were delayed more than five minutes this morning by milk sleighs stopped at the car tracks while the driver was of delivering milk and in both instances the sleighs were within ten feet of a turnout. This sort of thing is not fair either to the car company or to the public who must depend upon these cars to get to work on time.

The C.M.A.C., the largest and most influential social and fraternal organization of the French-speaking people of this city is soon to provide more spacious quarters for its members. In order to take care of the growth in the membership of the association, the officers some time ago considered a plan of disposing of the present quarters and securing a larger building in some other part of the city, but this was not deemed advisable and accordingly a building committee was appointed. Lawyer Arthur L. Eno, former secretary of the Memorial Auditorium commission as its chairman. The committee studied several projects and finally recommended the purchase of the tenement block adjoining the present building, which it is expected, will be completed in the spring and connected with the old club building. Architect Blackall of Boston, who drew the plans for the Auditorium is now busy on plans for the remodeling of the newly purchased building and it is fair to assume that with such a man as Mr. Blackall, who by the way also drafted the plans and supervised the erection of The Sun building, the C.M.A.C. will have quarters second to none in this part of the country. So far as a clubhouse is concerned, it is believed that with the improvements the association will increase its membership by several hundred.

I have had the pleasant experience of a formal introduction to Miss Mary Ann Dentler, the charming, leading lady of the new stock company, which is to open the Opera House next Monday. Miss Dentler will make her debut before the Lowell public in the famous role of "King Lear," a character which made the name of her father the talk of the theatrical world in the popular production, "East is West." The new leading lady is pretty and vivacious and will, no doubt, make a decided hit with Lowell's lovers of the spoken drama. She has had a wide and varied experience on the stage and has enjoyed a very successful career before the footlights. Her leading man, Arthur de Lord played the original "Billy Benson" opposite Ray Hainer in the New York production and will play the same role with Miss Dentler in this city.

K. OF P. CARNIVAL IS BIG SUCCESS

The Casino was crowded again last evening with attractions of interest drawing many enthusiastic people to see and enjoy another excellent program of varied entertainment provided by Wamsott Lodge, No. 25, Knights of Pythias. All of the booths did a big business. The entertainment of the evening was under the direction of President Frank Whipple and proved a winner.

Miss Mary McQuade gave a series of exhibition dances. The Misses Ayla Hollis and Dorothy Roulme also entertained with dances of various types, and little Miss Ida Watson of North Billerica came in to take a prominent part in the splendid program.

Popular melodies were sung by Miss Sadie Sheehan and Miss Florence Hagad. An orchestra played for dancing later.

Tomorrow night the Bulk on display at the Casino will be presented to the lucky coupon holder. All tickets should be collected by tomorrow night so the car can be presented as a grand finale to the show.

Miss L. Blanche Perrin has charge of the entire entertainment tonight, and there will be dancing throughout the evening.

GOODWILL INDUSTRIES DOING GOOD WORK

Excellent reports showing many accomplishments during the past year, have been issued by the Goodwill Industries, Inc., the official statements being formally presented at a meeting of the industries' executive committee, held at the Central M. E. church, yesterday.

Although the institution is but two years old, its work has steadily increased. During the past year, 38,422 hours of work have been done at the Goodwill House by 80 different people who were in dire need of employment. The work done by these people included repairing and renewing the contents of more than 4000 bags of clothing which the Goodwill people collected from house to house, and also on 1489 pieces of furniture. The various articles collected represent the contributions of 9000 different Lowell homes.

Sales at low rates of this clothing to needy people brought in $1,957.12, making the industries nearly self-supporting, although contributions are still needed to keep the work up to a high standard. In two years time, more than $10,000 has been paid out in wages.

The annual meeting and election of officers of the industries will be held at 8 o'clock, Monday evening, in the Central M. E. church. During the day preceding the meeting, there will be an "open house" at the Goodwill institution. Guides will show all visitors about.

The Goodwill Industries is now planning as part of the program of the National Methodist Episcopal organization to establish a day nursery with medical attendance, a dispensary featuring orthopedic, dental and eye, ear and throat clinics and supervised recreation, as well as keeping up the present Goodwill Industries.

Berton Braley's Daily Poem MY STARS!

(An astronomer has come forth with the theory that stars are the result of mating between masculine and feminine elements in space.)

A comet whirled through the realms of space,
A shining wake behind him,
He traveled along at a dizzy space
With many a lie to bind him;
Till once, as the comet went whizzing by,
A gay little Pleiad tamped him,
She winked at him with a bold bright eye,
And gaily indeed she vamped him.

So the comet paused in his headlong flight
To flirt with the gleaming Pleiad,
He found her sparkling and blithe and bright,
And finally asked, would she add
Her starry charms to his speed and force
In an astronomical tether?
"And thus," he said, "we will rove a course
Through the furthest stars together."

The Pleiad nodded a shy assent,
So off on the trail they started,
And over the firmament they went,
And never again were parted,
But little comets and Pleiads came
From this joyous amalgamation,
And thus the heavens began to flame
With a brand new constellation!

Reid Died in Arms of Wife

as Dorothy Davenport, and just after he had lapsed into semi-delirium, "God—be—pleased."

He had been unconscious for many hours but in his last talk with his wife when his mind was clear, he seemed to be aware, relatives said, that death was almost upon him.

At that time, he said, "Tell them, mamma, I have won my fight—that I have come back."

He had affectionately called his wife "Mamma" since the birth of their son Billy, five years ago.

Representatives of all phases of motion picture work offered their sympathy to his widow, little Billy and the tiny daughter the Reids adopted some time ago. Tributes to the dead actor were many.

The son of Hal Reid, famous as a writer of melodrama, did not want to be an actor, it is said, but desired to be a motion picture director.

"I never wanted to be an actor," friends quoted him, "and I still don't want to be an actor. The promoters liked the shape of my nose or something and I was powerless to do what I wanted to do. But they're not going to get away with it forever."

Reid was a member of the Order of Elks, and it was announced the lodge would conduct public funeral services Saturday afternoon.

The body will be cremated in accordance with Reid's wishes.

First Appearance at Four

Wallace Reid was born in St. Louis, in 1892, a son of Hal Reid, formerly a prominent writer of melodrama. He appeared on the stage when only four years old in the role of a little girl.

When Wallace was 10 years old, the family moved to New York city and he attended the public schools there until he entered the New Jersey Military Academy at Preporet, in 1910.

The Reid family moved again, this time to the Big Basin region in Wyoming. Here Wallace gained broad experience in western life. He was a ranch-worker, ran a small hotel and also worked on the government survey of the Shoshone Dam. Shortly after this brief engineering experience, he returned alone to New York and secured a job as a reporter on the old New York Star.

However, he soon tired of this and entered vaudeville. While working in this he entered the motion picture industry but soon abandoned it for an editorial position on the magazine, "Motor Life."

While in this position, he secured the motion picture rights to "The Confession" and sold it outright to a producing company with the proviso that both he and his father were to appear in it.

This definitely decided his career. After finishing this contract, Reid went west, where he started out as an all-around man with one of the smaller moving picture companies. He worked his way up, becoming one of the most prominent actors of the screen.

Reid married Dorothy Davenport, a moving picture actress. They had one child and adopted another. He was especially noted for his varied accomplishments. He not only wrote, acted in and directed plays, but was an enthusiastic motorist, played golf, tennis and was interested in all out-door sports. Reid's greatest hobby was music. It is said there was not a musical instrument, from a Chinese fiddle to a pipe organ, that he could not play.

BILL AIMED AT KLAN

Resolution Expressing Opposition to "Secret Organizations" in State Senate

BOSTON, Jan. 19.—A resolution expressing opposition to any "secret organization whose aims and activities are inimical to the rights and liberties guaranteed to our citizens" was presented in the state senate today by Senator Wellington Wells of Boston. The preamble referred to reports that the Ku Klux Klan was extending its activities to the state. The order will be taken up next Tuesday.

became evident immediately after the French military authorities moved in, and declare that real suffering now exists in many places. Normal food supplies in the Ruhr are said to have been exceeded stocks for so long a time. Those who have knowledge of the industrial conditions and the topography of the region as it bears on the food supplies view this situation with great alarm.

Dr. Hermes in Charge
MUNSTER, Jan. 19.—(By the Associated Press.) Dr. Andrus Hermes, federal minister of finance, has arrived here to assume supreme command of the German economic and financial defensive campaign against the French occupation of the Ruhr.

French Will Pay Bill
PARIS, Jan. 19.—(By the Associated Press.) The French government will be ready to provide for the needs of the Ruhr district in currency on the next pay day in case the German government remains obdurate and withholds the needed facilities for payment. It is said in official circles today. A special issue of local currency is in view with the resources of the Ruhr valley as a guarantee.

The special issue will probably be made in marks although the French government is ready to undertake the substitution of francs if it becomes necessary. The amount of marks in possession of the bank of France and the other French banks is insignificant in comparison with the needs of the district at the present value of the franc.

Seizure of State Mines
ESSER, Jan. 19.—(By the Associated Press.)—Seizure of state mines in the Ruhr by the forces of occupation was begun today. The Bergmannsgluck and Westerbolt pits, near Ruhr, were occupied by the military, and Manager Ahrens was arrested for refusing to deliver coke. Troops appeared at the Moeller pits at Gladbeck and at the Rheinfelden mines at Bottrop.

Arrest Mine Manager
RUER, Jan. 19.—(By the Associated Press.) The state mines near here were seized at 8 o'clock this morning. Ahrens was arrested for refusing to deliver coke. Troops appeared at the gates of the workings. Later at a conference with representatives of the laborers, the French colonel in charge of the troops announced that the manager of the mines, Herr Ahrens, had been placed under arrest. To this the workmen declared they would not work under French bayonets. They demanded the release of the manager and a promise that the troops be withdrawn.

Discussion Superfluous
BERLIN, Jan. 19.—(By the Associated Press.) Herr von Hoesch, German charge d'affaires in Paris, has been instructed to inform the Quai d'Orsay that the German government considers superfluous any further discussion of the aims of the Franco-Belgian occupation of the Ruhr.

This German pronouncement is in reply to Premier Poincare's observations of yesterday when the German protest that the extension of the occupation had gone beyond the neutral zone established by the Versailles treaty and that Franco-Belgian troops had entered the area occupied by German garrisons.

Thanks Close Doors
DUSSeldorf, Jan. 19.—(By the Associated Press.)—All the banking institutions in Dusseldorf, both private and state, closed their doors at 2 o'clock this afternoon, claiming to be unable to carry on business owing to the seizure by the French of the local branch of the Reichsbank thus shutting off the supply of marks.

STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—Further recovery in prices took place at the opening of today's stock market. The demand was particularly effective in the steel, oil and equipment shares, although speculators continued to record the largest gains. Eastman Kodak was pushed up 1 1/2 and DuPont 1. United States Steel common opened 5 1/2 higher and was followed into higher ground by Crucible, Midvale and Gulf States Steels. Early losses were limited to very small fractions.

The Ruhr valley normally imports approximately 75 per cent of all the food it uses, according to government records. The 500,000 miners and several hundred thousand other industrial workers there must therefore depend almost wholly on outside food sources. The small agricultural production is expected here to be retained for use as possible by those who produce it. Evidence of efforts on the part of the farmers to save the food for themselves has in fact already reached official circles here.

Jack Daw on Icicle Isle. Chapter 9

Then suddenly, out of the whiteness of everything around him, Jack heard several little "Yoo-hoo" calls. Again he looked around, but still couldn't see any of the snowmen. Then Flip started to bark. "Go get them," shouted Jack, to his dog. And Flip jumped around in circles over the snow.

This made the snowmen stand up where Jack could see them over the little banks of white snow flakes. Then Jack discovered that when the snowmen sat down they were the same color as the snow itself and therefore he couldn't tell the snowmen from the great piles of snow.

Jack thought this a very good joke on him and he joined the snowmen in laughter. Then, suddenly, all of the snowmen shouted loudly and started to run. "Why, what's the matter?" asked Jack. And a little snowman, who had fallen down, said: "Our enemy, the sun, is out." (Continued.)

LOWELL'S FIRE ALARM SYSTEM

Facts Concerning Antiquated
System Discussed at Meeting Held Yesterday

Movement on Foot for New System—Present System
Out of Date

Facts concerning Lowell's antiquated fire alarm system, some of them already known and some of them new, were presented yesterday afternoon by fire department men, insurance underwriters and alarm signal system representatives at a conference of the mayor and city council held in the former's reception room. The National Board of Fire Underwriters was represented by John T. Caldwell and Frank M. Tiffany was the representative of the Sunnwell Co., manufacturers of such systems.

The idea of the conference was to acquaint the members of this year's government with the condition of the present alarm system, to stress its unsuitability and to show why the city needs a modern manual system, with all instruments and apparatus attached to it installed in a separate, fire-proof building.

Except in relation to minor details of the present system, no comment was made that was not general knowledge herebefore. When Mr. Caldwell and Mr. Tiffany forgot to say about it was graphically supplied by Chief Edward P. Saunders and Capt. Thomas A. Conway. The entire conference was in the nature of a general discussion of the old and new systems, what other cities are doing along this line, the possibility of attaching the present system to the new one, and "just a little longer," the cost and time required for installing a new system, a suitable location for a headquarters house, overhead and underground wires, building hazards, location and types of signal boxes, and, in fact, every detail that might naturally come up for debate at such a meeting, including, also, one very important question, whether Lowell's insurance rating would be bettered if a new system is purchased and installed.

The approximate cost of a new system, as has been spoken of several times in the recent past, is $200,000, depending somewhat on the type and size of headquarters building desired and its location, which would affect the amount of new underground work required. In relation to a headquarters house, Chief Saunders suggested a site in French street, near the new high school boiler house, to be of sufficient size to accommodate the station apparatus as well as the instrument boards of a new system. Councilor Daniel Cosgrove advanced his proposition to acquire the Washington Tavern site and erect there fire and police headquarters combined.

The conference resulted in no action on the part of the governing body, but it may have paved the way for constructive steps in the near future. It cannot be said that the council, or the mayor, is rushing headlong into the matter. They are giving it plenty of thought and are extremely cautious, for it means considerable expense, but there seemed to be an evident feeling that something needs to be done and without very much delay. The feeling also was evident that the cost entailed would not call forth any criticism from the tax-paying public.

Perhaps no stronger commendation of the present system is possible than was uttered by Capt. Conway, when he said:

"The present system is old, out of date, unreliable, and in many ways 'rotten.' It is a system that might fit a city of 20,000 inhabitants, no more. Lowell outgrew it years ago and how it still is operating at all, even in a hit and miss manner, is a mystery. What remains of it is willful and fast and we never know what minute will sound its death-knell. We do not see how it possibly can hold out much longer."

The installation of a modern system would not place Lowell in Class B rating, but would go a long way toward it, for it would wipe out 212 points in a classification schedule that the city now is penalized for the present system. Complete motorization of the department on top of a new system, would carry the city into a higher class.

MORE NEW CASES OF MEASLES REPORTED

Twenty new cases of measles reported to the board of health yesterday raise the total for the week to 12 and 77 for the month. As no cases were reported this forenoon, however, health department officials feel the epidemic will be short lived and inconsequential.

One case of influenza, located in a house in Prince street, was brought to the attention of the health department today. It is the first case of the disease reported this year and the first since December 19, of last year. The department of animal industry has notified the board of health that a dog owned by John Shanahan, 11 Wiggin street, recently attacked and bit Lionel Solinas, 175 Cross street. This same dog has bitten a number of persons during the past few months.

CANADIAN REGULATIONS

Goods Shipped to Canada
Must Have Values Written
on Packages

The postal administration of Canada has advised the Lowell postoffice, via Washington headquarters, that according to the customs regulations of that country no goods exported to Canada from the United States, whether such goods are sent by mail or otherwise, can be entered through the Canadian customs without certified invoices furnished by the exporter to the Canadian importer or his agent.

Such certified invoices must be furnished in triplicate, two copies being required for the customs entry and the third copy for the use of the importer. The proper commercial designation of the goods shipped must be set forth in all invoices.

It is required that invoices from exporters to importers in Canada shall show the marks and numbers on the packages in such a manner as to indicate truly the quantities and values of the articles comprised in each exportation package, the packages to be legibly marked and numbered on the outside when of such a character as to enable such marks and numbers to be placed thereon.

Every such invoice shall contain a sufficient and correct description of the goods, and in respect of goods sold by the exporter shall show in one column the actual price at which the articles have been sold to the importer and in a separate column the market value of each article as sold for home consumption in the country of export.

The notices of the Canadian customs' strict regulations, to be enforced from now on, were received by Postmaster Delisle at the local office.

Lowell shippers of goods to Canadian points, whether sending materials by parcel post or by rail deliveries or otherwise, are cautioned to follow the regulations carefully from now on, for goods not properly marked and valued are liable to immediate seizure and holding, and if the required data is not furnished, the goods may be confiscated and sold.

WOMAN FINED $100 FOR ATTACHMENT EXEMPTION ILLEGAL KEEPING

Lena Staninovic pleaded guilty to illegal keeping in the district court today and was fined $100 by Judge Bright. She was arrested shortly after 10:30 o'clock this morning after members of the liquor squad had visited her premises and found a still in operation, 15 gallons of alleged moonshine and 100 gallons of malt. When the woman realized that a "raid" was taking place, she started to destroy the evidence, but did not succeed. Sergeant Winn, Officers Conney, W. Liston and Moore of the liquor squad and Federal Officers Hall and Sullivan were responsible for the haul.

Sublin Jackson appeared before the court on a complaint charging him with the neglect of his minor children, and was granted a continuance until Jan. 27. Other continuances granted were: Armand Menard, for drunkenness, until tomorrow; and Spyros Slavakis, for failure to provide proper support for his wife and child, until Jan. 25.

The law was placed on the statute books seventy-five years ago, fixing the amount to be exempted at $10. It is now a just exemption seventy-five years ago. I believe that $20 is fair now.

A similar bill was reported by the committee on judiciary last year which demonstrates that the members of that committee believe it to be a just proposition.

There was no opposition.

HOUSEHOLDERS MUST CLEAR SIDEWALKS

In an effort to clear gutters and sidewalks of heavy accumulations of snow, Supt. Harry P. Doherty of the street department has requested Thomas R. Atkinson, chief of police, to instruct all patrolmen to see that householders clear sidewalks and that the snow taken therefrom is thrown beyond the width of the gutter.

Supt. Doherty's letter on the subject to the head of the police department follows:

Mr. Thomas R. Atkinson, Supt. of Police, Lowell, Mass.

Dear Sir: Will you kindly instruct all officers in your department to see that all sidewalks along their routes are cleared of snow and that snow is piled beyond the gutters, which in any case must not be blocked up? Our department has cleared a great many gutters throughout the city and if these are obstructed in any way it would prove very disastrous in case of thaw.

Kindly give this your immediate attention and oblige.

Yours very truly,
HARRY P. DOHERTY,
Supt. of Streets.

LAST LECTURE IN SERIES

Large Audience Enjoys
Holmes' Lecture on "Great Sights East of Suez"

The last of the series of three Burton Holmes travelogue lectures in the Moses Greeley Parker course was given at the Memorial Auditorium last night before a large audience. "Great Sights East of Suez" was the topic and the intensely interesting trip by boat, railway and overland vehicles comprised a journey filled with wonderful scenes in India, Siam, Ceylon and the territory adjacent to the Suez canal.

From Port Said the journey led through the Suez canal, across the Red and Arabian seas to Bombay. Colorful scenes in India included the marvelous gardens and architectural triumphs of Taj Mahal, the glories of the Ganges, Brahm's workshops and vivid glimpses of strange ceremonies on the bathing ghats of Benares.

The journey then led southward to Ceylon, traveled along the palm-fringed shore and then turned inland toward the landlocked districts of Anuradhapura and Polonnaruwa. Although of a glassy black complexion, these folk of Ceylon have regular Caucasian features. Cruising through the Malacca strait had Penang as an objective, where some time was spent with the Sultan of Perak in his capital of Kuala Kangsar. Then was taken with the Rajah of Bendahara, after which there was travel by motor in the Malay peninsula.

The wonders of Siam were shown by stereoscopic slides and motion pictures and the audience was treated to an extraordinary exhibition of the royal ballet, the classic dancers of the king. Going up-country by rail there were glimpses of rural Siam, American missions, the majestic Menam river, the teak forests where teak logging is carried on extensively with royal elephants supplied with burden bearers.

The next course entertainment comes Monday evening, January 22, when Isaac P. Marcossian speaks on "The Changing East."
